Georgetown Legion girls' softball team lost their first league game of the year 12-4 to Mississauga Valley on Monday, July 4.

The Valley came out to give Georgetown a lesson in ball as they outplayed and outhustled the lacklustre Georgetown squad. Michelle Webster started on the mound for Georgetown and went one and a third innings and was relieved by Carrie Gallant. Gallant couldn't put the Valley out either in this game.

Gallant had four strikeouts while both pitchers issued 11 walks and the fielders committed four errors. Georgetown bats were slient as the Valley's pitcher struck out eight batters and didn't issue a walk. The return of Janelle Lewis who reached base two-for-three times and Julie Anderson with a triple in the seventh was the best for the Georgetown squad. Lesia Shrubsole caught a line drive in centre field and doubled the runner at second to get Georgetown out of a jam in the first inning for the play of the game for Georgetown.

Georgetown Legion girls' softball team came back July 5 and gave a little more effort to edge Alderwood Galant pitched for Georgetown and went the distance fanning eight while issuing seven walks. Alderwood's pitcher Terry Kelly fanned six and issued three walks.

Georgetown led 3-0, after four innings scoring two in the first and one in the fourth. Laura Richardson started off in the first with a bunt and an error on the throw to first enabled her to go to third and a bad throw to third let her go home. Tara Bouskill followed with a double and Carrie Gallant drove her in.

the seventh but Alderwood came back scoring four runs and left a runner at third. Again walks proved costly as three of the four runs scored got on base by walks. Big bats for Georgetown were Gallant, Lesia Shrubsole and Cindy Dunn. Play of the game for Georgetown went to Julie Anderson playing centre field, who showed her speed by chasing a lazy pop fly in the seventh inning to catch it and held the base runners in place. Julie also backed up both fielders during plays and scored one run in the seventh. Georgetown's next home game is

leen Cadger and Janet Mather smashed out homeruns for the Broozers. Triples by Broozers' Heather Cartwright, Sharon Hale and Lari Sproule, and doubles by Kim Nugent and Sharon Hale led to their win. Lori Sproule played a great game defensively by getting all outs in the fifth lnning and performing a single-handed double play. It was a good game for the Twisted Sisters with Mick Wood hitting an over the fence homerun and an in the park homerun by Anne Korzack. Also triples were hit by Twisted Sisters' Pat Akers, Kim Rogers and Mick Wood. Overall good game for both teams.

It was an exciting game right 'til the end, with Lil Stinkers hanging on for the win. Pauline Carwood slugged out a homerun for the Lil Stinkers with Wendy Middleton belting out two triples. Also doing well at the plate for the Stinkers were Eve Metler hitting two for two.

Terri Robertson, hitting two for three. Crown Royals Heather Hanson hit a beauty homerun. The Crown Royals had strong bats in the second inning with doubles from Sherry Love, Leanne Hall, Eda Warren and Judy Falhafer, Kay King was hot on first base by completing a double play single handedly. Special thanks to Dempsey Snow who managed to umpire the game.

Go for Gold 8 Rhythm in Blue 7 It was a pitcher's duel, with Go for Gold taking the win. Chris Jones and Anmette Van Dyke were great on the mound for Go for Gold, with solid defensive playing by Brenda Hamilton and John Beaumont. Go for Gold's Jennifer Reynolds hit the only triple of the game. Rhythm in Blue Janet Ranson and Lynn Fairimond hit doubles, but it wasn't quite enough to take the lead. Good pitching from Rhythm In Blue Jean Pickering and Janet Ranson. Also playing a good defensive game were Sue MacDonald, Jane Peterson and
