

Travel Outlook

Poland is a year-round cultural festival

No matter when visitors come to Poland, no matter what their planned or improvised itinerary, they can always "fresh out" their program with a wealth of cultural events that are happening all over the country at every season of the year.

For art lovers, for example, there are two concurrent exhibitions, which always draw large attendance: one dedicated to poster art (the International Poster Biennial in Warsaw through August 21) and a second devoted to the art of engravings (the International Biennial of Engraving in Krakow through the end of August).

Music lovers can get more than their fill throughout Poland, with a variety of events scheduled in both major cities and resort towns.

Through September 2, there's the International Festival of Organ Music in Kamien Pomorski, a 'country music' festival in Mragowo in late July, a Chopin music celebration from August 9 to 13 in Duszniki Zdroj and a festival of both old and contemporary music performed in Krakow from August 15 to 31.

Sopot again plays host to the International Song Festival from August 17 to 20, while Wroclaw brings together devotees of oratorio, cantatas and other religious music at the annual Wratistawia Cantans. Lovers of opera and operetta and fans of the late, great internationally renowned Polish tenor, Jan Kiepura, can honor his memory at the festival dedicated to him at Krynica, one of Poland's foremost spas, from September 7 to 18.

Two other music festivals of note are the annual International "Warsaw Autumn", playing contemporary music, from September 16 to 25, and the ever-popular Jazz Festival, held from October 27 to 30.

For more information about these festivals and ticket availability, please contact the Polish National Tourist Office, 333 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60601, tel.: 312-236-9013 or 312-236-9123.
