THE TANNERY (Cont'd)

After Walter Beardmore died, his brother George became the senior member of the firm and eventually Walter's son, Colonel A.O.T. Beardmore, who was born in the house at the corner of Mill and Frederick Street took over the company.

When the Colonel made his residence in Acton he lived at the corner of Church and Maria Streets, the site of the now Diplomat Apartments.

During the 1900's, sixty houses were built for the Beardmore employees and rented for $6-$8 per month.
