Experience and Expertise that Means Excellence

As principals of the Country Glen group, Joseph Rosset, Ron Willis, Barry Whiteside and Paul Quattrociocchi bring together over 60 years in the building industry - experience and expertise gained as senior executives with some of Canada's foremost construction companies and, in the planning and development of a variety of independent projects. Whatever they have undertaken, industrial and commercial buildings, luxury townhomes, condominiums or single family residential communities, they have done so with pride and enthusiasm - a commitment to excellence, combined with hard work that has earned them the reputation for quality and fine craftsmanship with both consumers and the home building industry.

When you choose a Country Glen home, you'll not only enjoy a home of truly imaginative design built to exacting standards ... you'll enjoy all the confidence that comes from knowing you've chosen a home from one of the most respected home building teams in Canada.
