McDermid appointed to cabinet

The long wait for Brampton-Georgetown MP John McDermid is over.

Mr. McDermid has been appointed to the federal cabinet by Prime Minister Brian Mulroney.

The appointment was announced late Thursday.

He will take over the new portfolio of Minister of State for Housing and Minister of State for International Trade.

The position will allow Mr. McDermid to have a hand in housing - normally a provincial matter - through the Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation.

Mr. McDermid was first elected to represent the riding of Brampton-Georgetown in 1978.

He has been an ardent supporter of the free trade deal as parliamentary secretary to Pat Carney and then John Crosbie.

Mr. McDermid's appointment to the cabinet has been rumored many times in the past but it never materialized.

Georgetown voters, however, will not have the new cabinet minister representing them after the next federal election.

Federal riding redistributions mean Georgetown and Brampton will be in separate ridings.

Mr. McDermid has already announced he will run in Brampton.

Sights and sounds such as this one kept the almost 18,000 fairgoers in Georgetown busy over the three day fall fair - one of the most successful ever - last weekend. Acton residents can expect much of the same this weekend at the Acton Fall Fair. About 15,000 people are expected to pour through the gates this weekend. The fair opened yesterday with a free day.
