MARVYN MORGAN
 Res. 873-2862

(HWY. 7) PLANK ROAD (Cont'd)

At a meeting on March 27, 1850 at Acton School House it was decided to extend from Georgetown the Toronto and Guelph Plank Road to Crewson's Corner. Capital required was 2,000 Pounds to be raised, by selling shares at 5 Pounds each. At a meeting on April 1, 1850 at Hills Tavern, the company name became Acton, Georgetown, Rockwood and Guelph Road Co. It's directors were Rufus Adams, Alex Brown, Robert Swann, Hiram Denny, R.L. Campbell and John Holgate.

In 1851, County Council loaned the company 1000 Pounds to take the road to Crewson's Corner and in January 1851, the Plank Road Ball was held in Norval, in a ballroom erected for the occasion by William Clay. One hundred and twenty people danced the polka, waltz and reel in unflagging succession until 2:00 a.m. when supper was served.

 Mark Rowe, President, Esqueing Historical Society and the Guelph Advertiser of April 11, 1850 were used as references.
