

Halton Hills Outlook

Super Slide

Students at Harrison Public School had something to celebrate Wednesday night as a section of their creative playground was officially opened. The entire project for having the playground equipment installed was accomplished over about six years, as a parents' group initiated a number of fundraising plans, including the selling of cheese. Between the parents and the Town of Halton Hills, which also installed the apparatus, the playground equipment was put in place. Taking a ride on the slide, and breaking the grand opening banner are Harrison school students Amy Willis (left) and Branwen Williams.
