McClure clan holds reunion

By KAY WILSON
Norval Correspondent

NORVAL-The 19th McClure Clan Reunion was held at Huttonville Public School on Oct. 1. A buffet supper was served to 236 members by Huttonville United Church Ladies at 6 p.m. Ian Davidson piped the head table into the hall and Iva Davidson provided the dinner music.

The afternoon sports program was convened by Gordon McClure and Lorie Archdekin. Over 50 young people competed in the races and games. Winners were - Alex Archdekin, Nathan French, Graham McClure, Edward Archdekin, Matthew Glen, Amie French, Adrian Kee, Karen McClure, Jolie Glen, Jason Kimball, Jason Goy, Melanie McClure, Mich Kee, Colin Huggard, Jeremy McClure, and Jenny Goy.

Ladies nail driving - Marie Huggard, and gents nail driving was won by Robert McClure. Marie Huggard also won the 100 feet step race.

President Sam McClure, Georgetown, welcomed all to the reunion.

A moment of silence was observed for those who have passed away since the last reunion.

Magician Joe Hartley of Cambridge entertained with his magic tricks.

Mrs. Harold McClure presented special prizes to the youngest set of twins, two-month-old Sarah and Krista Keller of Guelph, whose grandparents are Bruce and Muriel McClure of Milton. Second set of twins were four-month-old Cameron and Colin Davidson of Caledon. Proud grandparents are Andrew and Verna McClure of Woodbridge. Youngest child present was Ryan McClure, son of Bill and Michael McClure of Brampton. Oldest lady present was 91-year-old Katy Armstrong of Brampton and oldest gent was 87-year-old Marlin McClure of Florida.

Longest married couple of 54 years was Bruce and Dode McClure of Markdale and most recent married couple were Brian and Marilyn McMahon of Brampton.

Coming the farthest distance were Loreen and Jim Freisian of Calgary, Alberta. Closest birthday was John McClure, son of Gordon and Josie McClure of Brampton.

President Sam McClure was the youngest child at the first reunion in 1922. Doris Savage was present and was the pianist at the first reunion.

Donna and Darlene Downey, daughters of John and Ruth Downey of Brampton, entertained by dancing the Highland Fling.

Elected as officers for the coming reunion are President Robert McClure of Brampton and first vice-president Bruce McClure of Mississauga. Treasurer is Isla McClure of Georgetown. Secretary is Hyatt McClure of Norval, Assistant Secretary is Lorie Archdekin of Brampton. Tables were then cleared and Iva Davidson and her group provided dance music for the remainder of the evening.

Get well wishes

NORVAL-Get well wishes to Margorie Wilson, formerly of Georgetown, who fell in the Avalone Retirement Home in Orangeville and is a patient in the Orangeville

Hospital following surgery for a broken hip.

Sympathy sent

NORVAL-Sincere sympathy is extended to Eva Chisholm and Stanley and his wife Edith Chisholm, all of Milton on the death of their brother Cecil, who passed away Oct. 10 at the Milton District Hospital.

Dear uncle of Jean and Merritt Henderson and George and Joan Chisholm and their families, Dear friend of Bob and Margaret Pearson of Eden Mills.

Funeral service was from the McKersie Funeral Home Oct. 13. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Milton.

The church operates seven hospitals across Canada, mostly in outlying areas. The hospitals give personal nursing and medical care to 65,000 people.

The worship service was given by Gwen Laidlaw and Anne Wilson. It was a dedication to the fellowship of the Least Coin, and the money is sent yearly to the East Asian Conference to be distributed.

A homestyle auction sale followed with Lenore Laidlaw as auctioneer. Ella Laidlaw and Elaine Crawford assisted in the social time which followed.

Dart teams on target

By YVONNE GRAHAM
Herald Special

Remembrance Day is coming up and anyone wishing to donate time to sell poppies the week of Nov. 1, your time would be appreciated.

We had three teams go to Brampton Oct. 15 for Zone Darts: 1st place Georgetown C - Marg Hodder, Vi King, Helen Cloutier and Joan Brown. 2nd place Georgetown A - Rita Rudiger, Ruby Bailey, Yvonne Graham and Kelly McDonald. 3rd place Georgetown B - Sheila Hicks, Jean Reid, Monica Southon and Anne Nicholson. Well done girls.

There will be Zone Euchre in Milton Oct. 29. Don't forget the meeting Thursday, Oct. 20. Penny Sale tickets are now on sale for the Bazaar Nov. 26.

Congregation gathers

UCW meeting

NORVAL-The regular October meeting of Unit 2 of Norval United Church Women was held at the home of Jean Dunlop with the hostess presiding.

After the business meeting, Elaine Crawford's group showed a film called "Hospitals - United Church Style."

NORVAL-A well attended congregational meeting followed the service on Sunday, Oct. 16 at the Huttonville United Church. The congregation voted unanimously to accept a statement which had been prepared by the elders of the church. It stated "they disapprove of the ordination of practising homosexuals." This statement is to be forwarded to Presbytery, Toronto Conference and General Council.
