ACTON TRADES IN 1851

The Canada Directory of November 1851, shows Coleman & McIntyre, tanners.
Robert Swann, Acton's first postmaster and general merchant who named "Acton" operated from Mill Street. James Matthews, his nephew, was his assistant.
Simeon Anderson, Innkeeper. The Streetsville Review of November 28, 1850, reports that "Simeon Anderson has returned to his old stand at "The Acton Hotel" This hotel was located at the corner of Mill and Main Sts.
C. Davidson ran a general store.
J. Holgate owned a lot at the corner of Mill and John Streets until 1852 when he sold to Angus Kennedy, a carpenter, who built a little white, frame house.
Alexander Grant ran a store which sold books and shoes
John Nicklin was a Miller and Lumberman by trade.
Swann and Speight were cabinet makers

Many thanks to Mark Rowe, President of Esquesing Historical Society
