Bantam "mean machine" rolls over Ancaster

Hilts hattricks lead M's

The Georgetown M and M Pro Sports Major Bantams, in their high scoring fashion, captured a pair of wins from Ancaster in a recent home and home series.

In game one at home the mean machine took apart the opposition to the tune of 11-5.

Two days later the local majors journeyed to Ancaster where they once more embarrassed their opponents by pumping in nine goals to come home with a 9-2 win.

At home the first match was highlighted by a pair of hattricks - one by Adam Hilts and the other by Mark McIntyre (he's the tall kid with the funny haircut).

In the first period the teams exchanged a pair of goals to tie the game at 2-2 after one frame. Lewis netted the first of the match from Guistini and McIntyre with the other Georgetown marker going to Hilts, his first of three from Elinesky and Crawford.

Period two saw the M and M's begin to take charge by outscoring the visitors 3-1.

McIntyre got things rolling at 52 seconds of the period by notching his first of the night unassisted. Steve Wright followed with a goal assisted by Shaun Curry, then Hilts rounded out the Georgetown scoring in the period with his second of the match. Ancaster answered with a single goal to run the score to 5-3 in favor of the local M and M's after two.

Period three saw the M and M's break the game wide open with six more markers to once more demonstrate their powerful scoring ability.

Ancaster started the third with a pair of goals but the M and M's roared back with six unanswered goals.

Elinesky scored from Crawford and Hilts to get the machine in motion once more while McIntyre was picking up a pair to complete his hattrick with Guistini assisting on both markers. Hilts also scored his third of the night from Elinesky, with Georgetown's final two goals coming from Kosiwka with help from Wright and Rob Lang unassisted.

Halloween night saw the M and M's travel to Ancaster and in the true spirit of the evening played a nasty trick on the boys by trouncing them 9-2.

Treats were plentiful for the Hilts' line this Halloween eve when they picked up a total of 16 points.

Hilts notched his second hattrick in as many games and Doug Crawford picked up the other derby by the majors. Georgetown scored the only goals of the first period when Hilts picked up his first marker from Crawford and Amato with Ken Kosiwka picking up the second from Wright and Curry.

Mitch Butt started off the second period with a goal from Elinesky but, Ancaster quickly roared back with a pair of markers, Crawford nullified one of those however when he scored his first of the night unassisted to round out the scoring at 4-2 after two.

The third period saw the local M and M's rip into high gear once more with five unanswered goals to win in a cake walk.

Triggerman Hilts notched the first two of the frame for his trick with Elinesky picking up assists on both. Then Elinesky scored from Hilts. Crawford picked up his second of the game on a textbook passing play from Hilts and Elinesky and then not to be outdone by Hilts, Crawford completed his hattrick with the final goal of the game assisted by Elinesky.

John Katsilieris had some difficult shots to handle in the nets for Georgetown and was equal to the task.

Brampton nips McNally's 2-1 in crowd-pleasing novice contest

On Sunday afternoon Georgetown's McNally Construction and the visiting team from Brampton put on a splendid exhibition of Minor Novice double A hockey.

After only 5 minutes of the first period Brampton took a 2-0 lead and appeared to be in command.

But as the game progressed Georgetown seemed to get their game together and the net result was one of the best played games of the year. The McNallys narrowed the gap to 2-1 when Robert MacLeod stole the puck and fired it home. From this point on both teams had some excellent chances.

Brampton had some sustained pressure in the third period and would have extended their lead were it not for the great play of Joey Barber in goal who at one point kicked out his leg just enough to deflect a bullet-like shot past the post.

Georgetown's best chance to tie the game came when MacLeod stole the puck at centre and went in all alone with only two minutes left.

The Brampton goalie certainly made the play of the game when he deflected MacLeod's high shot over the top of the net. Georgetown pulled its goalie for the last minute of play and swarmed the opposition but were unable to score.

The locals can certainly hold their head high after the final buzzer sounded even though the score read Brampton 2, Georgetown 1, because if they continue to play with this much enthusiasm they will certainly win their share.

Acton Sabres swat Hornets to record first win

Acton Sabres finally shook the monkey off their backs with the team's first win of the Mid-Ontario Jr. C Hockey League season last Wednesday in Acton.

Sabres blew a 4-1 second period lead but managed to score a pair of late third period markers to break a 4-4 tie and skate to a 6-4 win over the Alliston Hornets. Sabres skated into the home contest with six losses in six outings after suffering an 8-1 drubbing in Caledon on Tuesday night.

Sabres hosted Grand Valley Harvesters on Friday. Look for a full report of last week's Sabre action in the Nov. 9 Herald.

Erin erupts for 11-1 bantam win

On Oct. 29, the Georgetown tri-county bantam hockey team hosted the league leading Erin squad.

The first period was well played with the visitors taking a 2-1 lead. In the second and third period however, it was a different story. Erin scored four times in the second and added five more in the third, to skate to an easy 11-1 win.

Scoring for Erin were: Jason Ross, Shawn Brianceive (2), Jeff Broughton, Andy Vanderkolk, Peter Cantrell (2), Trevor Harris, Jason Kralik, Adam Booth (2). The lone Georgetown goal was scored by Troy Gardiner assisted by Steve Brown and Bob Dezeuw.

Erin outshot Georgetown 29-11. The Georgetown team travelled to Burlington on Halloween night and although they lost, coach Finn Poustrup felt it was a much improved effort, compared to the Erin contest.

Burlington opened the scoring at 44 seconds of the first period on a goal by Dave St. Pierre assisted by Darren Wilkens. They scored again at 5:39 on an unassisted powerplay goal by Philip Klager, the blast from just outside the blueline beat Mark St. Pierre low to his right side. These were the only goals of the period.

Burlington completed the scoring of the game with three more goals in the second period. Mike McGugan scored an unassisted goal at 4:58 and Darren Wilkens fired a powerplay goal at the 11-minute mark, assisted by Brad Frost and Wayne Lubera. The final goal scored 53 seconds later by Brad Frost, was set up by Dave St. Pierre and Brad Snyder. Burlington took 16 shots, Georgetown 14.

The third period was played to a draw with the shots on goal even and no scoring.

Their next game will be in Milton on Nov. 9.
