

McNiven, Bond hot shooters

Midgets bag wins

Dale McNiven and Rich Bond were hot shooters for the Georgetown Sunny Acres Farms midget rep hockey team as the club bounced back from a Halloween night loss to record a pair of victories last week.

McNiven pumped the hat trick for Georgetown last Saturday night in a 5-3 win at Brampton and Bond did the honors on Nov. 1 as Georgetown whipped Flamboro 9-1 in Flamboro.

The wins followed a Halloween night loss in Ancaster that saw the Georgetown squad receive more tricks than treats as they suffered a close 4-3 defeat.

GEORGETOWN 5, BRAMPTON 3
Bill McDonald and Gord Burke scored singles to round out McNiven's hat trick performance. McDonald also added three assists while Jim English had two. Single helpers went to Eric Long, Adam Hagen, Stu Vogt and Rob Boyle.

Hagen played a strong game for the midgets after being called up from the bantam reps. "He fit right in," said team manager Wayne Pries.

GEORGETOWN 9, FLAMBORO 1
Bill McDonald and Eric Long had two goals apiece to balance the hat trick effort by Bond. Darren Lang and Dave Watts also found the range with solo tallies.

Gord Burke and Rob Boyle each had three assists and Dave Watts, Eric Long, Craig Cooper and Bill McDonald all had one assist each.

"They came out skating and didn't let Flamboro get started," said Pries of the local Sunny Acres crew. Gord Burke, Rob Boyle and Rich Bond were cited for giving strong efforts.

ANCASTER 4, GEORGETOWN 3
"We were out-hit and out-hustled," said Pries of the Halloween loss in Ancaster. Bill McDonald, Dave Watts and Doug Kent were the only Georgetown skaters to solve Ancaster goalkeeping.

Rich Bond and Dale McNiven had assists.

MIDGET MEMOS: Sacre Coeur School hall is the site of the Georgetown midgets team dance on Saturday night beginning at 8 p.m. and running until 1 a.m. Tickets are $20 per couple and include a buffet meal. Tickets are available from team members and management.

The midget record now stands at an impressive eight wins and one tie against only two losses.

Midgets host Burlington on Saturday afternoon (5:30 p.m. start at Alcott Arena) and visit Flamboro on Sunday.

Davidson, Hoogendam score twice

Major novices shake slump

By Dave Beavan
Herald Special

Georgetown Major Novices were still smarting from two lopsided losses last week, when they took to the ice in Ancaster last Saturday afternoon.

Our boys broke out of their slump in a big way with an inspiring 7-2 win. Cameron Hunter scored the only goal of the first period when he intercepted a clearing pass and fired a quick shot past the startled Ancaster netminder. In the opening minute of the second period Georgetown got themselves in a hole when both Michael Crawford and Andrew Beavan took penalties, and our boys were faced with a two-man disadvantage.

Playing a hunch, coach Dave Bell sent smooth skating Allan Rasmussen out as the lone forward. The move paid off immediately as Allan stole the puck at the Ancaster blue line went in all alone, and deked the goalie ala Mario Lemieux. The goal inspired our boys and they never looked back.

Sharpshooters Brad Davidson and Curtis Hoogendam each scored twice as they continue to lead the team offensively. Assists went to Shane Thompson (2), Sam Butt, Fraser Brown, Andrew Beavan and Ryan Bell. Wesley Blight rounded out the scoring in the last period when he knocked in a rebound of a shot by Davidson. Next game for the team is Sunday night against rival Brampton and it promises to be an exciting contest.

continual use of high sticks and cross checks throughout the game and our boys have the bruises to prove it.

As for the outcome Brampton made good on two power play opportunities and skated to a 6-2 win. Georgetown, playing shorthanded for one third of the game were held to two goals by Curtis Hoogendam, the first on passes by Sam Butt and Allan Rasmussen and the second from Andrew Beavan.

Coach Dave Bell said after the game that he was proud of the way our boys played, and pleased to see that they did not retaliate. He also gave special mention to defenceman Michael Crawford who may be small in stature, but certainly not lacking in courage as he took on all comers in front of the net, while protecting goalies Kevin Humeniski and Scott Herbert.

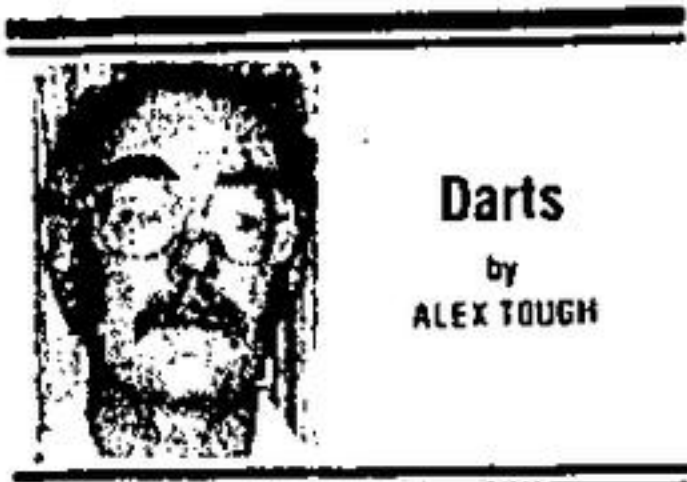

On Sunday night Georgetown Major Novices hosted Brampton. The game was extremely physical and looked more like the Philadelphia Flyers against the Boston Bruins than a non-contact game between nine-year-olds. Some body contact is inevitable but the opposition made

"Hey, it's mine!"

It's a roundball tug-of-war as players struggle for the basketball in action from last Saturday's AHS Junior girls tournament. Acton lost this contest, 29-26, to E.C. Drury but not before forcing the Spartans into overtime. Kelly Ambrose had strong outings for Acton in the annual tournament. Drury eventually lost in the consolation final to Georgetown while Lord Elgin took the championship crown over M.M. Robinson Rama. (Herald photo)

Halloween hijinks favor Timeout

Darts
by ALEX TOUGH

Time Out 1 held on to the lead at the top of the Halton Division of the Peel Region darts league with a resounding 14-0 win over the McGibbon 2 ladies team in a carnival atmosphere at the Time Out lounge.

The ladies turned up in costumes befitting Halloween but the Time Outers were not so generous with their treats. Most of the sets went 2-0 although Ged Williams dropped one game to Darlene Fyvie and the Pete Pickering/Bryan Turner dropped one game to the Shannon Shields/Mary Lou Vandervorst duo. Brian Hicks, Pete Pickering and yours truly all shot 140 high scores. A lot more interest was in the hugging and a certain "old" gentleman sporting unusual "gear".

Meanwhile high scores were the order of the day at McGibbon where I led Bracken 11-3 at the finish. Marty Wheeler lost in singles, in doubles with Gary Rodda, and teams with Gary Rodda, Brad Youmans and Jim Nicholson. Randy Hunt, McG, and Bill Taylor of Bracken each recorded a 108 finish. 140s were made by Ian McDonald, Brad Youmans, Hugh Smid, Gary Rodda and Marty Wheeler for 1 and by Gary Maltby and Dwayne Maltby for Bracken. As a result of this match McGibbon move into third place and Bracken drop to fourth spot in the standings.

Hollywood handed down an 11-3 loss to Copper Kettle thereby maintaining the recent good results. Keith Whalen and Stu Engineer their singles and the Fred Ball/Ray Catney their doubles for the Kettle's wins. Kettle drop down a place in the standings.

No information from the O'Toole/Time Out 2 contest except for the result which went in favor of O'Toole by 13-2. This win moves O'Toole into second place behind leaders Time Out 1.

The league format has teams playing back to back matches and Monday the reverse of these fixtures took place. Monday, Nov. 14 has Time Out 2 vs Hollywood, McGibbon 1 vs McGibbon 2, Copper Kettle vs Bracken and O'Toole vs Time Out 1.

Wednesday Nov. 2 Industrial League singles championship took place under the new format of registration on the night. The deadline time of 8:30 p.m. was a little late although the first game went under way some 20 minutes later, which is not bad at all. Terry Hancock and Jim Nicholson had the honor of leading the way. Hancock won through to the next round. Mark See had a high start of 148 on his way to last stages of his draw, defeating Dave Simpson, Terry Hancock and Ken Baker on the way. Meanwhile Dave Beaumont, last year's finalist, was making his path to the same end. He took care of Dave Robinson, Mark Campbell and Gary Richardson, despite Richardson's 180. Beaumont then won over See for the right to contest the final for the second year in a row.

The other half of the draw sent Gary Rodda and Ian McDonald into opposition for the right to the other final place. Rodda met and left behind, Kevin McDonald, Gary Graham, Hunter Carroll and Rick Harden before meeting McDonald fourth his way past "Big" Gord Inglis, B. Quinton, Jamie Russell and Hugh Smid to meet Rodda. The match went Rodda's way and he and Beaumont met in the final.

As often happens an anti-climax developed and Dave Beaumont could not get his game together, a repeat of 1987, and Gary Rodda emerged as the champion in two straight games. I believe this is the new champion's first year in the league and he has shown he can throw darts with the best of them around.

Due to several first round upsets a few well known players moved into the consolation round. Coming through the pack to the semifinals were Pete Pickering, Brian Hicks, Paul Kirby and Al Murphy. Would you believe it the youngest, newest and least experienced player came through to take the final. Paul Kirby defeated veteran Al Murphy to become the consolation champion.

This Wednesday it is back to league play for a few weeks before the next championship set. Dec. 7 hosts the teams doubles tourney.

Harry Bottoms also recorded a 180, Pete Pickering a start of 160, Gary Rodda a score of 152, Ron Scarlett started on 148, Grant Richardson scored 140 and Jim Fisher started with a ton. Dave Beaumont netted a high finish of 112. That's all folks.

Atoms leave fans buzzing with determined play

In Streetsville on Sunday, Georgetown locked horns with last year's provincial finalists.

Georgetown jumped into an early lead when Brad Spears scored assisted by David Kalbaraki. Georgetown widened their lead to 2-0 when David Kotsos scored assisted by Brad Spears and Scott Lahey. Crisp passing and impressive goaltending by Josh Richardson highlighted the game action.

Early into the third period Streetsville narrowed the local lead to one goal and eventually tied the game with 57 seconds remaining.

Georgetown, however, served notice that they are a serious contender in major atom play this year.

On Monday night Brampton faced off with the local team at

Peewee B's drop pair

The Georgetown Major B Peewee hockey team lost a pair of games last week in league play.

On Thursday, they visited the Milton Minor team in Milton, and lost 8-1. The first period ended at 2-1. The Georgetown goal was scored by Matt Deruchie on a nice solo effort. His wrist shot from the right faceoff circle caught the top glove side corner of the net. Milton, however scored two goals in the second period, and four more in the third, to close out the scoring.

Charlie Snook led Georgetown in takeouts, with five. Derek Ruffolo, Ken Brown, Shannon Morris, and Snook blocked shots.

On Sunday, the locals again visited Milton, to play the Major team. Again they were beaten, this time by a score of 5-0.

Georgetown had the better scoring chances in the first, with both Deruchie and Michael Bahr hitting goalposts. But it was Milton that scored the only goal. The home team added a pair of tallies in each of the next two periods, as they gradually took control of the game. Goaltender Darryl Canselman faced 35 shots and made several spectacular stops, particularly while his team was playing shorthanded.

Ken Brown led the team in takeouts, Matt Anderson, Ryan Hay, Snook, Brown and Ruffolo blocked shots. Next week, the team has a busy schedule, playing Oakville, Milton Minors, Acton and Erin.

Memorial arena. While Georgetown controlled the play, they were unable to score and found themselves losing 1-0 when the third period started.

Hard work and determination were rewarded early in the third period when David Boere scored, assisted by Andrew Trant and Kevin Lumb. The pace of the game quickly accelerated and fans were soon caught up in the electrifying action.

Marc Boucher assisted by David Kotsos put the local team into the lead. Goaltender David Pearson stymied the Brampton club's assaults and a strong defence consisting of Kevin Lumb, Sandy Davidson, Fraser Thom and Tim Diardichuk used their size to keep the Brampton team honest in front of the Georgetown net.

Brad Spears, on a solid solo effort, ensured Georgetown's victory late in the third period.

Coaches Jim Lahey, John Richardson and Tom Davidson were pleased with the spirited team effort.

The Major Atom team next faces Ancaster in a back-to-back series.

Peewees come out of shell to deadlock Ancaster

The Georgetown Major Peewee team came out of the defensive shell and played a wide open style of hockey against an unknown Ancaster team last week. Ancaster is new in the tri county loop this year.

The locals got the only goal early in the first period when Ryan Brain blasted a low shot past the Ancaster goalie off a perfect pass from Ryan Pirie.

The second period saw some wide open hockey from both teams as Georgetown tried to open the lead relying on solid goaltending from Sean Mills, who was called on for some key saves, as his team was playing all out offense.

"Sean kept us in there," said manager John Knight. "He had a lot of shots to handle and his strong performance in net let our team play one of the most aggressive games they have played to date."

Halfway through the third period the "Brain Family" struck again. This time it was Matt Brain who scored off a pass from brother Ryan with Pirie picking up the second assist.

Georgetown bowlers won individual honors at the recent master-junior zone competition in Guelph. From the left, Joey Robichaud, Tonya Morris and Kerry

Wright proudly display their winnings. Joey bowled a high single of 238, Tonya rolled a high triple of 564 and Kerry also struck a high triple, with a score of 535. (Herald photo)
