

New Crest

At the recent Parent-Cadet dinner, the 756 Squadron of the Royal Canadian Air Cadets were presented with their officially-approved squadron badge. The badge is pictured here, being presented to Commanding Officer Captain J.R. Brown by Rod MacDonald, CD Vice Chairman, Ontario Provincial Committee Air Cadet League of Canada. Designed by members and staff of the Squadron, the badge bears the motto, Carlem est noster domus (the sky is our home). The badge may be worn on blazers, ties, and squadron souvenirs.

Peggy Knapp honored

By DONNA MacPHERSON
Halton District PRO

Peggy Knapp, president-elect of the Federated Women's Institute of Ontario, was honored for Halton District Day on Oct. 30 at the Nassagaweya Community Centre, Brookville.

The guest of honor entered the room to a standing ovation from 150 people who had gathered for the occasion from Laura Rose (Cambridge), Guelph Area Executive and Board members, and members from Wellington Centre, Wellington South and Halton.

Halton District president Norma Alexander was official hostess for the afternoon's activities. Mrs. Rhonina sang the songs Amazing Grace and I Believe, accompanied by Donald Switzer on the piano. The Laura Rose branch, which Mrs.

Knapp joined in 1960, presented a skit covering several years in the lives of Mrs. Knapp and Wally. Then the Arkell members of Wellington South presented a skit on updated hairstyles for fairy tale characters.

Peggy and Wally Knapp moved to a farm, south of Georgetown in 1979. At that time, Mrs. Knapp joined the Ashgrove WI. Members from the Ashgrove branch formed a choir to honor Peggy with a selection of several slightly rewritten songs, accompanied by Glenda Benton on piano.

Mrs. Knapp graciously thanked all who had played a part in presenting the afternoon.

Congratulations are extended to Mrs. Knapp, whom everyone is sure will do a super job, as always. The members are behind her, 100 per cent.

St. John's prepares for Christmas

St. John's United Church of Georgetown and Glen Williams is busy preparing for the Advent season. Join in each Sunday in Advent, 10 minutes before the service to sing some of your favorite carols.

On Sunday, Dec. 11, there will be Communion in the Georgetown sanctuary. At the regular 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. services there will be White Gift services and the combined Junior Choirs of Georgetown and the Glen will perform "It's Christmas."

A potluck lunch will follow the early service in the Glen. On Dec. 18, at the 11 a.m. service the senior choir will sing praises with the cantata "Make His Praise Glorious." At 7 p.m., there will be the annual Candlelight Service in the Glen. On Saturday, Dec. 24 at 7 p.m. in Georgetown there will be a Family Service and at 11 p.m. a Communion Service. On Sunday, Dec. 25 there will be one service only and that will be in the Georgetown Sanctuary. On Sunday, Jan. 1 one service only will be at 11 a.m. in the Glen Williams Sanctuary.

On Sunday, Nov. 13 the worship service was the result of weeks of study, discussion and planning by Tamara Apon, Adam Broughton, Paul Duval, Jane Ellnesky, Norris Hobbs, Joanna McQuarrie, Connie McMenemy and Jo Morrow. Thanks go to them and also to the readers and musicians for sharing their talents.

Welcomed through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism on Nov. 8 were Jeffrey Scott Campbell and Katherine Leigh Campbell, son and daughter of Don and Janice; Samantha Lynn Crichton, daughter of Rob and Cathy; and Krista Jay McLellan, daughter of Mike and Wendy.

On Sunday, Nov. 20 families enjoyed a potluck supper, banner-making, gingerbread men and carolling as St. John's prepared for Advent.

The Youth Group went bowling Sunday evening, Nov. 13 and on Friday evening, Nov. 25 they attended the Christian Rock Musical "Fire" in Toronto. Sunday evening, Nov. 27 they met at the Georgetown Church. The program was by "Hot Seat" Bob Ellnesky.

Now that the Lord's Prayer is no longer spoken in school it has been moved forward in St. John's worship service so that it can be said before the children go down for Sunday School.

The local churches are the steady mainstay of the Brampton and area Food Bank. Leave your non-perishable donations in the receptacles at the rear of the sanctuaries.

Legion Auxiliary news

By YVONNE GRAHAM
Branch 129 Auxiliary
Last week I told you the branch had a team going to Dundas for District Cribbage but one of the names given was incorrect. The team was made up of Peg Lewis, Trudy Paul, Floss Tracey and Vi Hewitt. Sorry about that. Vi. They did not win, but they are to be congratulated for making it to the District level.

The Dec. 15 meeting will start at 7 p.m. so that after the meeting we can enjoy our Christmas party and potluck supper, convened by Trudy Paul.

On Dec. 17, there is a Christmas Social in Bramalea. Register at 10:30 a.m. to start at 11 a.m. Anyone wishing to go should contact Marion Carney as Anne Nicholson will be away.

'Not a victory but a trust'

Thank you for making me the first Member of Parliament for the new riding of Halton-Peel. Thank you for voting for me. Thanks to all the people who worked on my campaign. Thanks to Dorothy and my family for letting me take a swing at the future. Thanks to the other candidates for good campaigns. Thank you all for making the political process work; for caring about our community and our Canada.
