

Georgetown 4, Brampton 1

Novice heat wave

Georgetown Major Novices faced Brampton Dec. 26 in the opening game of the Milton tournament and continued their recent hot streak with a convincing 4-1 win.

One minute into the game Wesley Blight found rookie Fraser Brown alone in front of the net and Fraser got a welcome Christmas present, his first goal of the year. Georgetown was still holding on to their slim 1-0 lead at the mid point of the second period when defenceman Shane Thompson led a rush up the right side of the ice. As he cut toward the middle of the rink he was tripped up but Brad Davidson scooped up the loose puck, beat the lone defender and put Georgetown up 2-0 with a bullet to the stick side.

A minute later, Blight out-muscled a Brampton defenceman for the puck in the corner and slipped it to Curtis Hoogendam. Curtis wasted no time in firing a quick shot to the short side. Georgetown had a commanding 3-0 lead after two periods but they didn't let up as they continued to storm the Brampton zone.

Three minutes into the third period a Brampton defenceman shot the puck up the left side to his winger who was standing with his back to the blueline. Unknown to him, Steven Smith, the Georgetown captain, had decided this would be a good time for his first goal of the season. He rushed in from the point and intercepted a pass, deked the defenceman, and fired a low shot between the netminder's legs.

Georgetown's hopes were high after this game and when Curtis Hoogendam scored on another pass from Blight in the opening minute against Waterloo the following morning it appeared we were on our way. Waterloo had other ideas though and cruised to a 6-1 win.

Later that day Georgetown lost to Humber Valley by an identical 6-1 score with our only goal by Brad Davidson on a neat set up by Andrew Beavan. The boys can take some consolation in the knowledge that Humber Valley eventually won the tournament after beating heavily favored Streetsville and Windsor.

The team resumed regular season play yesterday against Flamboro. The boys are looking forward to putting these two losses behind them and starting a new winning streak in 1989.

Beyond reach

A Milton Merchant defenceman sprawls in an attempt to corral the puck while Georgetown Raider centre Chuck Loreto moves in during Central Ontario Jr. B league play on Kid's Night at Alcott Arena on Dec. 27. Loreto was a one-mar. gang as he scored the hat trick in the Raiders 9-4 win and he repeated the feat on Friday in a 6-6 deadlock with Mimico Monarchs. Raiders are back at home on Jan. 13 with Etobicoke visiting. (Herald photo)

CAR BUYING TIPS

USED CARS: EXAMINE THEM

Insist on taking the car to your mechanic or to a diagnostic centre for a check-up before finalizing the purchase. If the dealer refuses, don't buy the car — it could be a problem
