Volunteer today

Start the Year Off Right - Volunteer!

There are many local organizations needing help, and just a few hours a week will provide a much-needed service in our community. Let the Volunteer Centre match your interests and skills with one of numerous volunteer opportunities.

For example, office assistance is required one half day per week by the Red Cross. Or, the North Halton Hospice needs caring individuals to do one-on-one visiting. Training is provided.

If you would like information on these or any other volunteer opportunity, call the Halton Hills Volunteer Centre at 877-3219.

Adult learning

The Adult Learner Program is a free day-school program for adults that furnishes them with the opportunity to work towards their high school diploma.

Anyone interested is invited to attend an open house which will allow them to see what students are doing in the Adult Learner Program. Locally the open house will be held at Georgetown District High School, today (Wednesday) from 3 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. in the Resource Centre.

For more information contact Sue Grant at GDHS, 877-6966, or call The Continuing Education Office at 333-3499.

Immunizations

The Halton Regional Health Department conducts immunization clinics for the North Halton area the second Tuesday of each month, from 3:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The clinics alternate between the Georgetown office at 93 Main St. South, and the Milton office at 251 Main Street.

For appointments, call 877-2238 in Halton Hills and 878-7261 in Milton.

Shutterbug call

Entry forms are now available for camera buffs in Halton Hills to enter Photo Art '89, presented by the Halton Hills Camera Club.

Regulations and entry forms are available at the Georgetown Public Library, local camera shops, and other local businesses.

The deadline for submissions for Photo Art '89 is Feb. 18 at 5 p.m.

Board meeting

The Board of Directors for the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital will hold an open meeting Thursday, Jan. 26 at 4:15 p.m. in the board room.

The agenda for the meeting will be posted by 9 a.m. the day of the meeting in the Administrative office.

Anyone wishing to address the board is asked to forward a written request to the Board of Directors, Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital, Princess Anne Drive, Georgetown, Ontario, L7G 2B8, by Jan. 18.

Family history

The Halton and Peel branch of the Canadian Genealogical Society will hold a meeting Sunday, Jan. 22 at 2 p.m. at the Chinguacousy Library Meeting Room (Civic Centre), Bramalea City Centre.

Guest speaker for the meeting will be Cliff Collier, who will discuss Writing and Publishing Your Family History. Visitors are welcome.

Tutors needed

The North Halton Literacy Guild is holding a training session for volunteer tutors this Tuesday, Jan. 17 in the staff room of Robert Baldwin School, 180 Wilson Drive, Milton.

Any prospective tutors are invited to attend the meeting which is scheduled to run from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Anyone wishing more information, or wishing to confirm their attendance is asked to call 876-4756, or 873-2200 by Jan. 16.

Horticultural meeting

The Acton Horticultural Society will open the new year with a meeting this Tuesday, Jan. 17 at Knox Presbyterian Church in Acton.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Bob Hankinson of Dominion Seed House, who will discuss "What's new for 1989."

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

Song of Norway

Members of the Georgetown Horticultural Society will have the opportunity to learn more about Norway at their meeting Wednesday, Jan. 18 at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Madge Whitfield, who will give a slide presentation on Norway.

The meeting is being held at the Knox Presbyterian Church hall.

The Society meets the third Wednesday of each month, and visitors are welcome to all the meetings.

Know parking

Halton Regional Police want to remind motorists of the parking bylaw in effect in Halton Hills from November to April.

The bylaw states that overnight parking in designated areas is restricted to up to three hours. Daytime parking, between 7 a.m. and midnight, is permitted unless there are signs posted for snow removal.

Police say the overnight parking bylaw will be enforced, and that motorists should "govern themselves accordingly."

Vito's is considering postal contract

Chris Bartsch did say the Vitos were given "comfortable time" to review the contract offer. Canada Post chose Vito's Market as a location for postal services after studying several options, said Mr. Bartsch.

But the Vitos could refuse the contract offer if liability demands are too costly, said Mr. Vito. "If it costs three or four thousand for liability, we can't handle it," he said. He added that if the agreement presently being reviewed is a "normal" agreement, he and his wife would sign.

The Vitos said they will give Canada Post their answer within the next few weeks, at which time postal service at the fruit market could begin.

But Canada Post would "look for an alternative" to Vito's if the couple rejects the contract, said Mr. Bartsch.
