

Suspect wanted for fraud

CRIME STOPPERS

OF HALTON

Joseph James Lamb

A Canada-wide warrant has been issued by the Ontario Provincial Police for Joseph James Lamb, wanted for personation, uttering forged documents, fraud, and for being unlawfully at large.

Joseph James Lamb has been unlawfully at large from the Bathe Institution in Ontario since June, 1987. While at large, he defrauded banks in excess of $40,000 across the province, including occurrences in Burlington and Halton Hills. Lamb is known to frequent horse racing tracks.

Lamb obtains customer account information by watching customers, or by obtaining discarded slips from waste baskets. Forged withdrawals are then completed in Canadian currency and converted to US currency, travellers cheques, and/or British Sterling.

Lamb is described as a 45-year-old white, 5 feet, 10 inches (178 cm), 182 pounds (82 kg) with grey hair that may be dyed brown. Occasionally he wears a moustache and is a neat dresser, often seen in a business suit.

If you know the whereabouts of this wanted person, Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1,000 for information leading to his arrest. Callers are not required to reveal their identities or to testify in court. The toll free number to call is 1-800-668-5151.

Vehicle demolished in crash

A Campbellville man, 22, received minor injuries when his 1976 Plymouth was demolished Thursday morning on Sideroad 10 near Sixth Line. Police say the car slid on a patch of ice, went out of control and struck a tree. The driver has been charged with not wearing a seatbelt. He was treated and released from Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital.
