

No Smokin' Joe

Happy Birthday to Marc Jacques, the first baby born to Halton Hills in Non-Smoking Week. The Halton Council on Smoking and Health presented Marc, born Jan. 14, with a T-shirt that should fit him in a few years. (Herald photo)

Office re-opens

The Halton Hills Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society has announced the re-opening of their office at 164 Guelph Street. The new office hours will be from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., Monday to Friday. The new office has displays of educational materials and information for patients. In addition, beautiful crafts and hand-knitted articles are available for purchase. We appreciate the ongoing support of Georgetown residents and welcome you to drop in to see our new facilities or telephone (877-1124).

Valentine tea

There will be a Valentine Tea and Bake Sale, and Used Book Sale on Saturday, Feb. 11 at Norval United Church.

The event will run from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and is being sponsored by the Sunday School.

Cancer talk

The Living With Cancer Group will meet this Thursday, Jan. 26 at St. Paul's United Church in Milton.

Group discussions are designed to provide emotional support and practical guidance to patients, families and friends. The groups are sponsored by the Canadian Cancer Society, and are led by nurses.

Meetings are held on a regular basis on alternating Thursday evenings in the Fellowship Room of St. Paul's Church, 123 Main St., in Milton.

Future meeting dates include Feb. 9 and Feb. 23. For more information, call the Milton Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society at 878-5228, or 878-1876.

Mail campaign

The Georgetown Lioness Club is continuing to conduct their remaining campaign appeal in the Georgetown area for the March of Dimes.

Letters have been mailed out and donations have started to return. The campaign will continue to run until Feb. 15.

Ukrainian night

The Georgetown Lions Club will host a Ukrainian Night dinner and dance on Saturday, Feb. 18.

The evening will feature a dinner of all-Ukrainian food, home-cooked by Ukrainian Lions Club members, a display of Ukrainian dancing and entertainment as well as the regular dance.

Tickets are $25 per person and can be purchased by calling 877-6407 after 5 p.m., or 877-7761.

All proceeds from the event will go towards the Lions' community projects.

Snow shovellers

Open Door is compiling a list of names of students who are willing to shovel snow for elderly or handicapped residents in Georgetown. The service will operate on similar lines to that offered by Acton Social Services.

Those people who require the service should telephone Open Door and they will be given the names of two or three youths in their area. It is then up to the individual to contact these teenagers, interview them as to their suitability, and set a price for the job. (Minimum hourly wage suggested).

Open Door can be reached on Thursdays and Fridays at 873-2966.

draw, this week's lucky winners were: Cell Reid, Red Roahier, Doug Harlow, Mother Clark, Jim Emmerson, Nadine Bradley, Vern Kirby, Bill McCartney, Jim Ford and Joe Martin. The roast was won by Marlene Haskins.
