

Police Beat

Woman injured

A Milton woman was injured in a single-car collision on Guelph Street early Saturday morning. Halton Regional Police say a westbound 1981 Chevrolet Malibu driven by the 18-year-old woman, rounded a curve near Winston Churchill Boulevard when it went out of control and struck a guard rail. The car was moderately damaged. The woman was taken to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital where she was treated and released. Police have charged the driver under the Highway Traffic Act.

Charge laid

A Georgetown woman has been charged with making an improper turn after two cars collided at Winston Churchill Boulevard and Sideroad 10 Friday morning. Police say a 1985 Ford Tempo driven by a Georgetown woman, 23, was southbound on Winston Churchill Boulevard when it turned left onto a private drive and was struck by a 1985 Mercury Lynx driven by a Georgetown man, 20. Police report no injuries in the accident.

Severe damage

Two cars were severely damaged in a collision at Guelph Street and Alcott Drive Thursday night. Police say a 1988 Nissan driven by a Georgetown woman, 18, made a left turn on a yellow light in front of a westbound 1981 Ford driven by a Georgetown man, 18, when the cars collided. Police have charged the Georgetown woman with making an improper turn.

Sign struck

A van driven by a Georgetown woman, 30, went out of control and struck a road sign Wednesday night. Police say the 1983 Ford van was southbound on Main Street near Henry Street when it went out of control on the icy road while slowing for an oncoming curve. The van struck a road sign and was lightly damaged. Police report no injuries and no charges laid in the single-vehicle collision.

$300 damage

Police say $300 damage was caused to the front door of the Canadian Tire store in Acton Saturday night. Sometime between 6 p.m. and 11 p.m. an unknown suspect smashed the glass at the front door, say police. Nothing was taken from the premises.

Break-in

A break-in at the Petro Canada gas station on Guelph Street resulted in a loss of $1,400 in cash and goods sometime between Saturday and Sunday, say police. The front door to the office was smashed and gas receipts, two tool boxes and $340 cash was taken from inside. Police are investigating.

Man charged

An Erin man who allegedly impersonated his brother was charged by Halton police last week. Police say a man was stopped Oct. 21 and issued a ticket for not wearing a seatbelt. Subsequent to the ticket's issue, police found the man had given the wrong identification, when charged. An Erin man, 23, faces charges of obstructing police, breach of recognisance and impersonation. He will appear in court March 13.

pressure, you cannot give blood... we're looking after the donor as well as the receiver."

Although the new questioning system will mean longer line-ups when donors give blood, it is a measure necessary to protect the health of those concerned, said Mrs. Street.

The Red Cross Society said they will do "everything we can to provide the safest possible blood product."

The next local clinic is at Holy Cross Church, Feb. 13 from 1:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The Red Cross provides a babysitting service during the clinic and transportation is available to donors. The local Red Cross phone number is 877-5233.
