

Up in arms

The close coverage provided by this Centennial Charger didn't help a McKenzie-Smith Mustang as she struggled to grab the ball during public school girls basketball play at Centennial last Wednesday. Centennial won the match, 42-16. (Herald photo)

More off-ice success for Peewee B's

The Georgetown Weldwood Major B Peewees have had more success off the ice than on recently.

On ice, they shut out in their last two league games, against Burlington and Erin, and in their first OMHA playoff game, against Milton.

Off ice, they had a successful fund-raising raffle. The first-prize winner of a side of beef was Susan Gibson of Toronto. The second-prize winner of a black forest ham was Don Weibert of Etobicoke, and the third-prize winner of $20 was Kimberley Snow of Georgetown. The team wishes to thank all those who participated.

The statistics have been tabulated for the season to date. They are based on a per-game calculation for team members who have played in at least two-dozen games.

Leaders on the even-handed plus/minus category were Matt Deruchie, Michael Travers and Matt Anderson. Deruchie and Jeremiah Fendley topped the goals-scored category, while Jason Quinn and Deruchie led the assists category. Derek Ruffolo, Charlie Snook and Blaine Kennedy led the team in blocked shots, while Shannon Morris and Darryl Casselman had the fewest penalties. Ken Brown, Deruchie and Ryan Hay led in takeouts.

In respect to most improved over the course of the season, we have the following results. Morris and Anderson led in plus/minus, Fendley led in goals, and Quinn and Charlie Snook in assists. Quinn topped the blocked shot list. Hay and Andrew Marshall took the fewest penalties category, while Morris and Anderson improved most with respect to the number of takeouts.

Weldwood's playoff series resumes this week with two games in Milton.

Bantams bowl 'em over

Bantam bowlers at Georgetown Bowl knocked down many pins to qualify for the Master-Bantam zone round of the Provincial Championships. This is where a bantam boy, a bantam girl form a team with a Master Teaching or Tournament Bowler.

Lynn Moreland and Kevin Shapcott with Ralph Miller; Nancy Larocque and Martin Johnston with Gord Lane; Monica Beuparant and Matthew Walker with Carolyn Lane and Hollie Cairns and Paul Larocque with Sandy Cuthbert.

Runners-up and substitutes for the bantams girls are Jennifer Doyle and Kimberley Conrad. For the boys are Ken Armstrong and Jeff Pringle.

The zone round is scheduled for Guelph on Mar. 12, 1989.
