CVCA names officers for 1989

The 1989 officers of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority was quickly decided upon at the 248th Full Authority meeting held Jan. 19.

Chairman Ken Whillans - Brampton and Vice-Chairman C. D. Glassford - Town of Caledon were acclaimed and returned to office for another year in the same capacity.

Members of the Executive Committee remain the same as all five were acclaimed. They are: John Hutton - Brampton; Marilyn Serjeantson - Halton Hills; Fred Wilson - Orangeville; Harold Kennedy - Mississauga; and Member at Large, Paul Dray - Village of Erin.

New appointees on the Authority include Mississauga Councillor, Mr. F. Dale, who replaced Councillor David Culham; Mr. R. Gillespie from the Town of Orangeville, who replaces long time member Gord Bredin; and Mayor of Halton Hills, Mr. Russ Miller, who replaces Councillor Peter Norton.

A reorganization of the Authority membership is in effect for 1989. Gone are the four advisory boards, which included: Conservation Services; Information and Education; Water Management; and Parks and Recreation. Items discussed and decided upon at these advisory board meetings will be addressed at the Full Authority level by all Members of the Authority.
