

Over-60's tournament suggestec for Legion

Darts

By ALEX TOUGH

Bruce Hope shot a 180 recently at the open mixed teams tourney at the Legion. Harry Bottoms has suggested an over-60's singles tourney at the Legion (could it be that Harry feels he has a chance of winning as a still, and very active over-60 player?) Both players are part of the Saturday afternoon crowd at the Legion (including the occasional bar chairman Harold Badham).

The Halton B division of the Region of Peel darts league carries on down towards the wire, so to speak. The number 1 team from Time Out continues to lead the way with a satisfying 9-5 win over nearest challengers from McGibbon I. For a change in a close match the singles went to Time Out by 6-2 after dropping the opening game. Also for a change, the remainder of the games were tied. Time Out's lead is now 41 points and the move is on to go through to the end of league play without a loss. There were a number of 140 scores in the match, three to McGibbon and seven to Time Out. Third place O'Tooles held on to that spot with a like result over the McGibbon II team. The girls have played well in recent weeks and came to play yet again in tying the singles 4-4. The lads took the first three, the girls the last three. However only one more game went the girls' way. Three 140s were scored by O'Tooles.

Hollywood dropped two singles in the singles and doubles before losing in the teams and this made a comfortable win over Brackens by 10-4. Wood trails O'Tooles by only two points and will be looking for another big margin this week in the return match at Brackens. Again both teams shared in the over-130 scores with five of them, including 156 by Terry Kouyoumjan, the highest of the day.

Time Out II took the first three and last three singles to sew the seeds of victory over Copper Kettle. Kettle came back in the doubles with three out of four to bring the match within reach going into the teams. Rousing wins by II put paid to that comeback and a rare win was recorded. John Colter had a 100 finish and figured in the high scores by Time Out II with none recorded by Kettle.

All the teams were featured in return matches at the other premises in the next session of play held Monday.

Turning to the Industrial league, we see that Snowjacks Hustlers remain at the top although struggling to remain in form, despite a 9-0 win over Golden Flights who just could not get going except for Barry Sproule. Beau Beaumont had two opens and four closes and Ron Scarlett the opposite with Ray Inglis in good support. The leaders are 31 points ahead of tied Exports and Westenders with Ensigns following close behind.

The second and third place teams met and Westenders, with Eric Fuller in form, defeated Exports 7-2. Fuller had one open and four closes and Ray Ackroyd returned with five opens. Dennis Thorogood was top scorer with 135 and John Mills had a 102 open. No details from Exports captain, Brian Hicks this occasion. High Rollers stay away from the foot although going down by the odd game to Inter County, the surprise winners of the night, for a rare win.

Gerry Wallace and Archie had two closes each for County. Terry Hancock shot a jubilant 180 and 140, a high start of 72 in his two opens and two closes.

The other First Division clash ended with Panthers going down to Bulldogs by the odd game. Luke Heikamp opened with 136 amongst his four opens. Each playing Bulldog pulled off a finishing double for a good win.

A top of the table match in the Second Division saw Acadian Pools resume form with a 6-3 win over Steep Rock. Gary Richardson had five starts and Tim Fields opened three. Richardson also shot 140 and a ton. Jim Nicholson had 140, Gary Rodda 123 and Ian McDonald 121 in reply. Rob Pynter's 140 went a long way to instill confidence in Power of Pain's win over Unknowns. Doug Logan began with 70, Bob Webster shot a high 125 and it was not enough for this match. Roy Bulitzo had three opens and closes and Poynter had three and two.

Aces stopped the Bandits by 6-3 with Lloyd Westlake having three opens and a finish along with each other Ace. Brad Youmans opened with 120 and had himself a couple of 140s in the bargain. Independents and Taxmen had a close battle before. Taxmen came out on top. No details were available.

Second place Gasketmen Cutters took Firemen by 7-2 and they are only five points behind Steep Rock and Pools are two more behind. Anyway, Mark See shot three over the ton for Cutters and Russ Curtis had a 2-2 evening. Ace Bailey opened with 120 for Firemen's top score.

McLean, Heinz lead Atom Selects

Gary McLean netted two third-period goals and Steve Heinz recorded the shutout to lead the Georgetown Atom Selects to a 5-0 victory over Hespeler in recent hockey action.

A goal in the first period of the match by Derek Legere and one in the second by David Doole, made for an exciting finish in the third period.

Gary's first of two on the night at the eight-minute mark of the third backed Hespeler up, and Wesley Burke's first of the night put them away.

Steady back-checking by all the forwards and good defence throughout the match helped goaltender Steve Heinz earn his first shutout.

Picking up assists in the contest were Chris Howell, Jamie Bottomley, Sean Peasgood, Andrew Elnesky, Jeff Hewitt, Dave Doole, and Derek Legere.
