Drew McGowen

... "focus on goals..."

Georgetown resident Drew McGowen, co-ordinator of marathon swimmer Vicki Keith's Great Lakes swims last summer, addressed the large crowd at the awards presentations on Feb. 8. McGowen said self-discipline was the most important quality of a winner. McGowen told the award-recipients: "If you remember how you got here and apply it to life, you'll always be a winner at life."

The "legal eagles" from the Bishop Reding Mock Trial Team posed proudly after the awards night ceremonies.
