Top four prove worth as also-rans pay price

Darts

By ALEX TOUGH

Monday night's darts matches produced the top four versus the bottom four and form ran true with the top teams winning through. McGibbon I took 10 games from Brackens, O'Tooles took 11 games from Time Out II, Hollywood took 12 games from Copper Kettle and Time Out I took all 14 from McGibbon II.

The girls came close in a few games taking Ged Williams, Danny Fraser and Eric Fuller to the full three games in their sets. Darlene Fyvie scored a high 132 in her match with Beau Beaumont before going down narrowly. Pete Pickering had a seven-point match for the lads in his quest for top individual honors over the season. Pickering scored 140 along with Joe Cairns, Ged Williams and self.

McGibbon I's Gary Rodda led the individual standings by three points before the evening began and pulled away by one more in winning all his matches and scoring two 140s. Brad Youmans scored twice over 130 and Marty Wheeler scored 133 with Randy Hunt hitting form with 160, the highest of the division. Gary Maltby and Dave Civaro also scored 140s in reply for Brackens.

Joe Benoit, Chris Broadbent and Stu Engineer each scored 140 in the losing effort of Copper Kettle against Hollywood. Tavern's Ed Kouyoumjian and Mark Farri-mond also knocked for 140 in this match.

Jim Carter (2), Kevin Baldwin, Eddy Patterson and Mike Pepper each shot 140 in dowsing Time Out II at home to retain second spot in the team standings. O'Tooles have come with a late challenge for the top place held by Time Out I. Hollywood slip into third place and McGibbon I drop to fourth place for the moment.

With Gary Rodda leading the player standings, and Pete Picker-

Ron Scarlett, Beau Beaumont, Ged Williams and Brian Hicks of Time ing in second place, Joe Cairns, Out I are all in the first 10 rounded out with Randy Hunt of McGibbon I and Rick Harden of Hollywood. Three 180 maximums have each been scored by Scarlett, Harden and Fraser with Rodda and Pickering next with two each.

The Industrial League turned to team triples for their Wednesday night show. The tournament proper saw Inter County, bottom of the first division, battle with Westenders, lying third in the table. George O'Neil, Gerry Wallace and Ron Corbett gave Dennis Thorogood, John Mills and Ray Ackroyd a run but the finishing strength of the 'Enders proved too much and the higher placed team won the title. Gary Rodda had the high start recorded of 105 in the main rounds and Brad Youmans recorded a high start of 120 in the consolation round.

The consolation winners are Taxmen with the victory coming over Panthers in a tense battle throughout. Taxmen beat In-dependents, the other Panthers, another Independents to reach the final. Meanwhile the finalists saw off the Unknowns, Bandits, Acadian Pools to reach that stage where they lost and Taxmen were the worthy winners of the consolation.

The Legion's zone championships have been taking place over the past two weekends. This weekend saw the team sets take place and once again Cooksville came out on top and put another team in the top four to go to the district battles. Brampton also qualified and the "rebels" from Georgetown did it again! Beau Beaumont, Eric Fuller, Ron Scarlett and self won our section after a playoff with Acton to reach the four qualifiers, again ending up in fourth place in the finals, although not before the top team a huge fright, being the only squad to take them the full three games. Bruce Hope, Ross Hope, Jamie Russell and Eileen Creary did well as did the team of Ian McDonald, Peter Buckley and another with a "dummy."

Too close for comfort

Greg Brazeau had trouble getting free in front of the Oakville net in his play from last Saturday's 7-4 Georgetown loss at Alcott Arena as Blade blueliner Mark Van Vliet put the grab on the Raider forward.
