

For business people, Arlene can work magic

Office Magic Stationery and Office Supplies sticks to its motto, "We don't promise what we can't deliver," according to manager Arlene Smith.

Mrs. Smith and her husband Doug started in the business in April of 1988 and since then have increased their stock by almost 300 per cent to better serve the office needs of the community.

They've added such customer services as high quality, low cost photocopying, fast turn-around on business card orders, and total FAX service.

Office Magic employs one other full time staff member, sales clerk Joanne Styles, and three part-time employees, Lisa Dykstra, Hormony Bull, and Mandy Bull.

Located at 136 C Guelph St. in Georgetown, Office Magic carries a full range of office products, stationery, greeting cards, giftware, and computer and drafting supplies. On business cards, Office Magic really performs magic with one day service.

Mrs. Smith operated a decorating centre business with outlets in Timmins and Porcupine, prior to moving to Georgetown three years ago. Before opening Office Magic, which was previously Guelph Street Stationery, Mrs. Smith became well known at Colour Your World in Georgetown, working in sales there.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith are life members of the Kinsmen Club, an honor given to outstanding members of Canada's greatest fundraising service organization. Mr.

Smith was recently instrumental in re-forming the K-40 Club of Georgetown, which is open to past members of the Kinsmen.

Office Magic is dedicated to providing the customer with the best possible personal service and products at competitive prices.

"We won't promise delivery dates that we cannot meet," says Mrs. Smith, "and we're happy to refer customers to other suppliers if we haven't the product in stock."

Give Office Magic a chance to work their magic for you. You'll be glad you did.

Melina's tames your sweet tooth

Steady expansion and home made products have made the Melina Bakery, owned and operated by Carmella V. Zenga of Acton, a professional operation with a wide variety of baked goods and prepared foods.

Melina Bakery employs five bakers and counter help who are involved in the production of breads, rolls, loaves, pies, cookies, squares, sandwiches, pizza, lasagna, cakes and other items that may be ordered as specialties.

"Life is uncertain, eat, dessert first!" is the current motto at Melina's. This carries over the friendly atmosphere of the bakery and a professional attitude towards keeping its products home made.

Mrs. Zenga emigrated from Italy, and was educated in Toronto. She has been married to John Zenga for the past 25 years, and has a son, Joe, who is married.

The Melina Bakery has expanded from humble beginnings. Originally the bakery contained a fridge, stove and freezer, making seven loaves of bread and a dozen cookies each day. Melina's production has increased to up to 100 loaves a day.

Expansion is Melina's goal, particularly to serve their customers better. The bakery would also like to create new jobs this way. Mrs. Zenga feels that expansion within the Acton business area is an important factor in attracting new businesses and encouraging growth.

In addition to business expansion, Melina's gives food left over on Saturdays to the needy.

The Melina Bakery is located at 35 Mill St. East in Acton.
