ACTON IN 1866
THE SCHOOL AND GROUNDS

A description of the "new" stone school house was offered in the Canadian Champion of May 1866. "The Acton school house is a fine stone edifice about eighty feet by thirty, pleasantly situated on a slight eminence, near the track of the Grand Trunk, on about one acre of ground to the west of the town. The grounds are kept in a very orderly condition, and are being ornamented with trees, about fifty of which were planted this week... Each pupil has a tree of his own which he is required to be the guardian. The large trees which grace the grounds of Robert Little School to this day, doubtless date from May 1866."

Many thanks to Mark Rowe, President of the Esquesing Historical Society, who wrote this article.
