

Humeniski in top form as Novices blank Waterloo in tourney

By DAVE BEAVAN
Herald Special

Georgetown Major Novices competed in the Preston Novice Tournament on Feb. 24-26 and acquired some much-needed competition heading into next week's Tri-County playoffs.

In the opening game against Chatham on Feb. 24, the boys showed the obvious effects of their recent lack of ice time and were a little flat, losing 5-2. Our goals were scored by Shane Thompson from Andrew Beavan and by Brad Davidson from Thompson and Steven Smith.

This loss made Saturday afternoon's contest against local favorite Cambridge a must win. Georgetown was in this game all the way and with only four minutes left in the third period Cambridge held a slim 2-1 lead. Then a long shot from the blueline deflected off a player in front of the net and the game was out of reach. Cameron Hunter was our lone goal scorer from Thompson, Michael Crawford, and Smith, but the real hero for the Georgetown squad was goalie Scott Herbert whose catching hand was striking like a cobra at anything that moved and had the spectators from both sides screaming their approval.

Georgetown now had no chance to advance to the finals, so Sunday morning's game against heavily favored Waterloo was nothing to look forward to. Waterloo had previously handed Georgetown a 6-1 thrashing in the Milton tournament and since they still had a slim chance to reach the finals we were in tough. Our boys showed what they are made of and played like demons for the entire game.

Neither team could manage a goal in the first two periods and halfway through the third the game was still scoreless. Then Brad Kouyoumjian dug the puck out of the corner to Shane Thompson along the right hand boards. Shane spotted Curtis Hoogendam alone in the slot and put the puck right on his stick. Curtis then showed us something we haven't seen for awhile, his high, hard wrist shot. The Waterloo goalie is still looking for it, and unbelievably the final score read: Georgetown 1, Waterloo 0.

The whole team played well but special mention must go to goalie Kevin Humeniski for the well earned shutout in easily his best game of the season. With this victory and a couple of good bounces on Saturday, Georgetown would have made the finals and with the kind of goaltending Kevin and Scott were providing we would have had a good shot at the AA championships.

For his outstanding play in all three games Shane Thompson was picked to play in the tournament's All-Star game and 25 Georgetown supporters stayed in Preston from 10 a.m. until the 5 p.m. game to loudly voice their approval. The noise was deafening. Shane did a good job in representing our team and helped his squad to a 3-0 victory.

McLean scores two in Atom loss

Gary McLean scored both goals, one of them on a short-handed rush, as the Georgetown Atom Selects were doubled up 4-2 during exhibition action in Guelph on Feb. 22.

Guelph took a 3-0 lead with less than three minutes left in the second period before Georgetown came back to notch a pair, cutting the deficit to one goal.

McLean scored his first goal with just over a minute and a half remaining in the middle frame with help from Sean Peasgood.

An unassisted short-handed effort by McLean at 3:45 of period three got Georgetown to within one goal before Guelph cemented the win with an insurance marker just 30 seconds later.

Trevor Crane and Jeff Hewitt were cited for their strong penalty-killing work with Georgetown taking six minors against Guelph's four.
