

Rodgers and Hammerstein Globe prepares for new project

By DIANE ATKINSON
Herald Special
Georgetown Globe Productions is at it again. After the success of Hello Dolly last fall, production is under way for Globe's spring presentation, "Some Enchanted Evening."

In a supper theatre format. Some Enchanted Evening will take you on a musical stroll down Rodgers and Hammerstein's memory lane. After a sitdown dinner you'll be entertained with some of the duo's most popular songs from such famous musicals as The Sound of Music, The King and I, Oklahoma, South Pacific, Carousel, and State Fair.

For those of you who can't help tapping their toes when they hear an old favorite, there will be a dance after each performance. Bring your dancing shoes and kick up your heels with members of the cast.

Musical director Colin Eastment said that, "Globe's first dinner theatre, Stay Tuned, received such rave reviews we decided to try it again, and what better way than with the beautiful music of Rodgers and Hammerstein? And," he continued, "we have a cast of singers that would make Rodgers and Hammerstein proud."

Some Enchanted Evening features a chorus and five main characters being played by Debbie Tilson (Julie), Marlene Johnston (Anna), Lois Fraser (Nellie), Phil Brennan (Will), and Roderick MacIntosh (Billy).

Some Enchanted Evening will be held at the Ballinacree Community Centre, 10 kilometres north of Georgetown on Trafalgar Road and Regional Road 42. Show dates are May 4, 5, 6, and 11, 12, 13. Tickets cost $17.50 and include dinner and show. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. followed by the performance. A cash bar will be provided. For ticket information, call 877-4323.

Tickets will be going on sale soon.

A real treat in store with Winners and Zoe

There's a real treat in store for music lovers at the John Elliott Theatre on Thursday, March 23 at 8 p.m. when The Easy Winners and Zoe Kendal will perform in concert.

Students' trip to Germany and Austria in April.

Tickets are available at Neil's Music Centre or by phoning the high school at 877-6966. Get your tickets early.

The Easy Winners jazzband provides a blend of traditional and Dixieland jazz, blues, ballads, and '50s rock. Two members of the group are well known local musicians. The band has appeared on TV, cut several records, and has performed at the Edinburgh Jazz Festival as well as appeared in New Orleans, the birthplace of jazz.

Zoe Kendal will be featured as the Guest Artist. No stranger to Georgetown audiences who eagerly await each return engagement, Zoe is a very fine actress, singer and songwriter from Kitchener where she is enjoying the success of performing to packed audiences.

Proceeds from the concert will go towards the Georgetown District High School Music

POWER supporters all heart

Valentine's Day was Feb. 14, but for POWER supporters who jammed the Acton Legion, the celebration took place on Friday, Feb. 17.

Three hundred thirty-three tickets were sold earning over $3,000 to save our water.

The supporters of POWER (Protect Our Water and Environmental Resources) who buy tickets never intending to attend the dance are appreciated. Maybe next time they will give it a whirl. The disc jockey, Kevin Frier, supplied such a variety of music that everyone found something to their liking. Generous prize donations were: a $50 certificate from the Hide House; dinner for two and brunch for two from Jack Tanners; gift packages of Carlton cards by Kevin Frier; a wall plaque from Sue Lorito; hair products by Ricci's Coiffure; and a free hairstyling for a man from Cuts by Chris. This degree of community involvement shows that Halton Hills is not going to be buried by Toronto's garbage without a fight.

Thanks go to the Acton Legion, the prize-givers, the hard working committee who organized the event and all who bought tickets. We hope the next fundraiser will be as much fun.

Liona Boyd in concert

Liona Boyd, Canada's First Lady of the Guitar, will perform a solo concert at War Memorial Hall, University of Guelph, on Wednesday, March 15 at 8 p.m.

This talented musician has been seen on many of the world's major television programs which include the Tonight Show, Merv Griffin, Entertainment Tonight, Paul Anka Special, Boston Pops, Today Show, and the Monte Carlo Show. She has also received four Juno awards for "Instrumental Artist of the Year."

Tickets for Liona Boyd range in price from $14 to $16.50 and are on sale at the University Centre box office, The Bookshelf Cafe, Sam the Record Man, and The Corner in Stone Road Mall.

For more information about this concert contact Susan Smith at 824-4120 ext. 2896.
