Lions host seniors dinner

NORVAL-Huttonville Lions Club entertained 117 senior citizens from the Huttonville and Norval area on Friday, March 3.

President Sho Teramoto welcomed everyone on behalf of the Lions Club and introduced his co-members, including co-chairman Bill French and Chris Arthey. A beautiful roast beef dinner complete with all the trimmings was served by the Lions, assisted by their wives for the fourth consecutive year.

Following the dinner President Sho announced a number of charities the Huttonville Lions support. The charities include the scouts, guides, Salvation Army in both Halton and Peel, Georgetown and Brampton hospitals, Camp Dorset, the Canadian National Institute for the Blind in Halton, the Children's Aid Society in Halton and Peel, the Huttonville Church, Canine Vision with $6,000 to train a dog and a public address system for Huttonville School. The Lions also sponsored Pineview School's 25th anniversary with a tree for planting and the 4-H Club of Huttonville.

The Lions members are kept busy supporting all these areas by running eight bingo nights in Brampton, as well as their 12th Craft and Antique Show coming up on April 8 and 9 at the Huttonville Community School from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Many lucky draws of flowers and fruits were made. The seniors were entertained by singer and entertainer Zoe Kendall of Huttonville who sang many old time favorites and led a sing-song.

Appreciation for a beautiful evening was expressed by Isabel McKay on behalf of all seniors.

tours. The first tour was to the Maritimes early in February. On the trip east he played in Kingston and Brockville as well as Halifax and Dartmouth in Nova Scotia.

This past two weeks he has been on a swing through Western Ontario playing in Windsor, London, Guelph and Hamilton ending up his tour east in Ottawa and Peterborough.

Edgar (Thatcher) is planning a music night at the John Elliott Theatre on May 27.

Day of Prayer

NORVAL-The world Day of Prayer service for the Norval Community was held in the Presbyterian Church at 10 a.m. on Friday, March 3.

On this day in different circumstances and in many languages the thoughts of women around the world focused on the theme, "Lord, teach us to Pray," from Luke 11:1-13 of the Lord's Prayer. The service was prepared by the women of Burma.

Guest speaker Kathryn Latimer of Georgetown, an active member of the Women's Interchurch Council of Canada, spoke of her work and of her time in Nicaragua, as a volunteer with Habitat for Humanity.

Norine Van Leeuwen, Gwen Laidlaw, Dorothy McLean and Jean Dunlop from the United Church and Ada Duff, Margaret McClure, Wilma Archdeakin and Isabel McClure from the Presbyterian Church led in the service.

Marilyn Micklethwaite was the pianist and Rev. Angus Sutherland dedicated the offering.

Eleanor McClure, Reta Hamilton, Jean Creighton and Wilma Archdeakin were hostesses for the fellowship following the service.

Diamond anniversary Couple celebrates 60 years together

Former Georgetown residents John and Frances Walker, celebrated their Diamond Anniversary with their three children and spouses, Shirlev and Dick Crichton, Virginia and Francis Hulme (all of Georgetown) and Bill and June Walker of Bracebridge (formerly of Georgetown) at the "Inn at the Falls" on Jan. 21. Grandchildren and great-grandchildren joined the celebrants later in the evening at their home. The couple have 12 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

The Walkers met at a football match in Belleville while Jack was a student at Albert College and Frances was at high school and it was "love at first sight." They were married within the year and after Jack finished studies at Albert, they moved to New Jersey while Jack attended Drew University.

In 1932 they returned to Toronto with their two small children, where Jack did post-graduate work (in journalism) at University of Toronto before taking over his father's business, Walker's Publishing Company as owner and editor-in-chief. However, teaching and history had always been his first love, so after retiring from his publishing business, Jack attended OCE and started teaching history at Georgetown High School in 1958; one of his first students in Grade 13... his own daughter!

The Walkers have been almost life-long residents in Muskoka, spending every summer at the family-owned Victoria Island. In July, 1974 they moved to Bracebridge where Jack accepted a teaching position at Bracebridge High. He taught history there, until his retirement in 1975.

In addition to their son Bill, two of their grandchildren are residents of Bracebridge as well; Scott Crichton, his wife and two children; and Cheryl Pritchard, her husband and two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker received congratulatory plaques at their reception, from the Mayor of Bracebridge, the provincial MPP, the Prime Minister, the Governor-General and Her Majesty the Queen.
