

Return of the torch

Memories of the 1988 Olympic Torch Relay hit Halton Hills on Monday as 12 local runners helped carry the Ontario Winter Games torch on part of its journey north from last year's site in Hamilton to this year's host city, North Bay. Helping to carry the torch along Highway 25 were Daniel Bonnell, Lisa Nikifork, Jason Vidler, Ellen Pielh, Trevor Lewis, Jim Sale, Amanda Bogart, David Thorpe, Jake Mashinter, Brendon Cleary, Bob Donker, Warren Daniell, Doug Daniell and Jennifer Wood. Halton Monday nighters consider change in plans

Darts

By ALEX TOUGH

The Halton Monday night league is to consider some thoughts of change for next season. Change such as allowing the top teams to retain only six of their current lineup for the following season. Frankly, this is not in line with the reasons for beginning the pub type league, which is competitive in make up. Change such as ending the teams games with "baseball" or some other measure of team game. By the time this is in print the league meeting will have already taken place and news shall follow in later columns.

As usual, Time Out I remained on winning form with a good away result at O'Tooles in a fine match. O'Tooles Richard Harwood opened with a singles win over Ged Williams. Time Out struck back with six in a row until I reached the board to lose to Luke Heikamp. Harwood and Eddie Patterson won O'Tooles only other points with a doubles win over Pete Pickering and Williams, the match ending in an 11-3 win for Time Out I. Ron Scarlett shot his fourth 180 and took the 180 lead with the score. Brian Hicks came in with 137 and O'Tooles' Kevin Baldwin and Kavan Drumm came back with a 140 each. Baldwin is a very unusual player indeed - he throws his arrows flight first with an almost underhand flick at the board - it is successful for him and that is all that counts.

Second-place Hollywood scored a similar win over Time Out II away and played steadily throughout. John Colter and Vic Lovell took singles from Bruce Hope and Stan Mathews respectively and Lovell teamed up with Larry Vary to win a doubles over Hope Mathews for the only 11 points. Hollywood were served well by Jeff Richardson and Ron Duval, they both shot a maximum. The visitors continued with their seemingly double act when Terry Kouyoumjian and Rick Harden both shot 140 on two occasions. The only reply came from Colter with a 140.

Third place is held by O'Tooles and McGibbon I are three points behind in spite of a 12 point win over the ladies from McGibbon II. Gary Rodda turned in a spectacular performance with full points from all matches and six scores over 130 for a big night. The only losing player was - sorry kid - Marty Wheeler in spite of shooting 180 against Anne Nicholson. John Reyce shot 140 and Brad Youmans shot 134 as the girls had a forgettable evening.

Copper Kettle and Brackens had a real old fashioned set-to. Kettle ran out the singles leading 5-3, Brackens came back to tie with their 3-1 lead in doubles to set up the team games for the deciding factors. The visitors pulled off both for the two point win, in fact winning the last five in a row to spoil the good opening by Kettle. Individual honors went to the home team with 140 being scored by Greg Cummins, Chris Broadbent and Dave Ball and 138 by Ron Corbett. Greg Thoms came in with 140 and Bill Taylor with 138 for Larry Melton's boys.

Meanwhile, the Wednesday evening darts at the Legion in the Industrial league moved along, with league-leading Snowjacks Hustlers out of action.

Exports moved back into second place with their win over Inter County, Westenders dropping into third spot and Ensigns continue in fourth. All three teams won, with 'Enders defeating Bulldogs and Ensigns defeating Panthers. 'Dogs and Rollers, both promoted from the second division this season began the season well enough and recently have found matters hard going. Rollers went down to Golden Flights.

Sleep Rock, Gasketmen Cutters and Acadian Pools, the leading three teams in the second division
