At this time my wife Debbie and myself would like to thank all the people in the past few days who have offered to help us. It was very heartwarming to know you have so many friends and valuable customers. For this reason we have decided to rebuild Country Video Games. We appreciate your patronage and hope to be open within 60 days. All movie and membership data was saved from the fire so your membership is still valid. Save your cards. For information call 877-2254. Again, thank you for your friendship and hope to see you soon.
