Coping with FLUFF

Hello there.
I suppose you're wondering what happened to Jamie, your regular reporter, right? He's gone off to another paper in town (gasp) for his semester-two Co-op. So lucky you, guess who's taking over? Moi.
March Break is here (thank God) and the question is: what shall we do to occupy our free time? If you're stuck in Georgetown without a car or had any transportation you have two things to choose from, the movie theatre and bowling. You can only see "Three Fugitives" so many times before it's just not funny anymore (so I'm told).
Many of us are faced with the FLUFF syndrome. Friends Leaving Us (poor miserable creatures in this frigid land of Georgetown) For Florida. So, we stay here and pray that their suntans peel before they have the chance to show them off to us anemic homebodies when they return.

GDHS Report
by MICHELLE ROUILLARD

Don't you wonder when the school library will be getting a copy of the "Satanic Verses?" A bomb threat might liven things up around here. Is the lack of excitement around the school what prompted the recent unexpected fire alarms? It's fine to break up the monotony of a summer Math class. But guys, it's freezing outside.
Speaking of livening things up, the annual Air Bands competition went on during the lunch periods on Wednesday. Adam B. and crew went all out and showed us that they could be "Simply Irresistible" and simply winning the contest which requires extreme skill and talent.
Have you always dreamed of being a journalist? I know you have, so why don't you join the GDHS Press? What an opportunity to show the world your hidden talents. The next meeting is tentatively scheduled for the Wednesday after March Break.

On Monday, all the co-op students had an in-school class. The students were asked to tell everyone else their most positive memory from the past month at their placement. Many didn't have a positive memory but things will most certainly look up for them. I won't mention any names.

That's about it for me until next week. If you can think of anything you'd like me to write about in future weeks, just let me know. I'm open for suggestions. See ya.

Crawford Lake hosts Sweet water festival

Crawford Lake Indian Village and Conservation Centre will demonstrate how maple syrup is made 'native style' during the current program Thanks to the Maple Season, which continues until April 16.
Sweet Water Day will be held Sunday, March 19 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and will include a maple scavenger hunt, crafts for kids, films and exhibits; and sweet water demonstrations every hour from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Thanks to the Maple Season operates weekends and holidays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and daily during March Break from March 13-17.
Crawford Lake Indian Village and Conservation Centre is located on Steeles Avenue and Guelph Line, 16 km north of Hwy 5 and five km south of Hwy 401. For more information, call the Halton Region Conservation Authority at 336-1158 (weekdays) or the Crawford Indian Village and Conservation Centre at 854-0234 (weekends).
