Promising program

The weather vane atop the steeple at the Cultural Centre is again forecasting the cold northwesterly winds - after being all prettied up and gleaming in the bright sun (or had you noticed?). Very soon, hopefully, it will make a turnabout and indicate the warm spring breezes that surely are not too far away. Under its watchful eye events are bustling in the premises below.

—March Break offers many activities for the young in the Library and the Recreation and Parks Department film "The Fox and the Hound" presentation will be on March 15 at 1:30 p.m. in the Theatre.

—The songwriters have taken over several evenings in the Meeting Room and more information is available from Jeff at 877-5185 extension 262.

—"Tanglefoot" performs Apr. 2 on the Super Sunday Series. A few tickets are left. Phone 877-1575.

—Georgetown Little Theatre ends another successful season with a drama "Jekyll and Hyde," end of April. Phone 877-3700 for ticket information or go to Royal LePage.

—The "Arts Alive '89 Week" begins Apr. 30 with a Classical Brunch and ends on May 6 on a swinging note with "Fascinating Rhythms" by the National Tap Dance Company of Canada. For information please phone 877-7915.

—The Gallery is presently exhibiting "Photo Art '89," sponsored by the Halton Hills Camera Club, to be followed by an exhibit of wildlife in acrylic and oils by Mark Kalous in April.

—Student Art will again be displayed from Apr. 18, which will be convened by the Halton Board of Education.

—The John Elliott Theatre will again be the scene of the spring productions of Stewarttown School with "On Broadway" in April, and Centennial School with "Alice" in May.

Free skating

There will be Free Skating in Acton and Georgetown during the March Break. This opportunity has been made possible through the generosity of the Acton Rotary Club and the Georgetown Optimist Club.

After the Johnson and Associates tri-county bantam hockey team opened the second round of their playoff series with Acton on a winning note, the bantam B's proceeded to lose the next three games straight, thus ending their OMHA playoff hopes.

With coaches Poulstrup and Juby not overly pleased with the previous three-game effort against Acton, they set their sights on the first round of their tri-county playoffs against Milton.

The opening game in a best-of-three series in Milton did little to improve the opinions of either coach Poulstrup or Juby, as their team scarcely went through the motions and Milton skated to an easy victory. Game two in Georgetown saw Milton take a three-goal lead by the midway point of the second period, and it looked as though Milton would avenge their OMHA loss to Georgetown, by taking this series in two games straight.

This, however, was not to be as someone sounded the wake up call for Georgetown and Craig Juby put the locals on the scoreboard at the 7:09 mark of the second period. Alan Fudge scored at 7:39 in the third, and Jeff Timmons tied the score with one minute left to play in the game. In the 10-minute straight time overtime period, Brad Tutt scored at the 4:26 mark and that proved to be the winner.

With the series now tied, Georgetown travelled back to Milton for the final game and to some degree redeemed themselves (in the minds of the coaching staff at least) as they skated to an impressive 9-3 win, and for the second time this year eliminated Milton from further play.

The team now faces Burlington in the next round, which began last Wednesday in Burlington.

In the first round of the Markham Invitational Tournament, a two-game total goals round, Georgetown won the first game in Whitby against Whitby by a score of 6-0.

The Johnson and Associates squad will be participating in the Georgetown bantam tournament beginning Mar. 11, so why not come out, enjoy some hockey, and support all our boys.

Registration for both the Acton and Georgetown Indoor Pools for the Spring Session commences at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Apr. 1.

Chiefs open playoffs

Georgetown Domtar Packaging Minor Peeewe "AA" Chiefs opened their tri-county playoffs with wins over Streetsville and Ancaster.

On Feb. 28 at Memorial Arena the Peeewe's struggled to record a 5-3 victory over a stubborn Streetsville squad.

With the score 3-3 in the third period Jamie Stephenson scored his second goal of the game, on a pass from Gavin Glaser, and on the same shift Duane Erler notched the insurance marker with assists to linemates Scott Wilson and Stephenson.

To insure the victory, Doug Sheppard popped two goals with two assists to Duke Bouskill, Glaser added his second assist and singles were added by Mark Aldridge, Erler and Tyson Hackett. John Waller was

On Mar. 2, the Minor Peeewe's hosted Ancaster at Memorial Arena. In a chippy contest the Minor Peeewe's prevailed by a score of 7-1.

Erler led the charge with two goals, with single markers to Sheppard, Stephenson, Bouskill, Stephen Onoprijenko, and Stephen Yurichuk. Aldridge and Brent Wilkinson earned two assists each.
