

Dart playoffs in sight

scored 100, in his four starts and two finishes. Tom Elliott shot 125 and Eddie Plackett 100. Taxmen and Aces fought their way to a finish with Aces taking the last three games for the win. Dean Zilio opened two and finished one. Dave Beaumont scored 100, began four and finished one. Joe Poirier started three games. Bruce Capriol began and finished two. The final game of the week was between Bandits and Firemen. Bandits won four in a row in the middle of the match to set up the 6-3 win.

Brad Youmans opened with 120 and closed with 107. Alex Bowie began on 91. Rob Quinton began with 93 and scored high on 116.

Saturday afternoon the Jamie Russell led team won the men versus ladies Fun Darts tourney from the Ian McDonald led squad, with Marg Hodders girls being the top ladies squad. Bruce Capriol's team defeated both male teams aforementioned and Marty, lost to most of the ladies teams. Alex Tough won the high opening, Paul Kirby the high score for men and Ruby Bailey for the ladies. I believe that Jamie Russell may have the high finish. The day was not too well publicised beforehand yet nonetheless enjoyable for all who did play.

The Legion over-50s went to Cooksville all the way on Sunday winning the singles, doubles and teams. Only a makeshift team from Brampton in the teams, Brian Hicks and I in doubles came close and Bill McCartney and I both lost in the singles semi-finals. No trophies this year, Cooksville have asked that the tourney be hosted by other branches to try and instill more interest. This year was the first year of the now annual Alfie Oates over fifty's tourney, now named after former industrial player and Erin resident, Alf Oates.

The Georgetown Legion Girls start their fourth year and this year again will play in the Mississauga League. The girls will start to practise on Mar. 23 at Georgetown high school in Gym No. 3 between 7-8 p.m. Any girls interested in trying out are more than welcome to come out to practice. For further information contact Bill Richardson at 877-3456.

CAR LEASE

QUESTION: I am a commission salesman. A recent winter storm caused extensive damage to my car. While the car was being repaired I leased a car to use in my job. May I deduct the lease payment as an expense?

Mark Bulicki

ANSWER: Yes. However, the amount deductible and the manner in which it may be deducted depends on your lease contract
