

Chiefs guaranteed of final berth

The Georgetown Domtar Packaging Minor Peewee "AA" Chiefs all but assured themselves of a berth in the Tri-County Championship final with two wins this week.

In Streetsville on Mar. 14 the Domtar Packaging squad held on for a 4-3 victory, and at Memorial Arena on Mar. 19 they skated to a hard fought well deserved 5-4 win over Brampton.

Duane Erler keyed the Georgetown offence in Streetsville as he scored a goal and chipped in with three assists. Jim Katsilieris added a goal and an assist, while Mark Aldridge and Stephen Yurichuk scored single markers. Doug Sheppard, Gavin Glaser and Tyson Hackett each earned an assist on the Minor Peewee goals. Goaltender John Waller watched as the Chiefs built a 4-0 lead and then held firm late in the third period to preserve the 4-3 victory.

The victory over Streetsville left the Chiefs with a perfect 4-0 record in Tri-County playoff action. Brampton brought a similar undefeated record into the Sunday confrontation. Defence spearheaded the Domtar Packaging offence as Glaser counted the hat trick. Defenceman Blaine McCauley got the Chiefs started as he went end to end to open the scoring with goaltender Chad Hughes earning an assist. Glaser scored from Stephen Onoprijenko to extend the Georgetown lead to 2-0. After Brampton narrowed the score to 2-1, Glaser counted his second goal, the assists going to Jamie Stephenson and Erler.

With the score 3-2 Aldridge banked a shot off a Brampton defenceman to restore the two-goal Domtar Packaging lead. Brampton refused to quit and again drew to within one goal. Erler won a face off and Glaser completed his hat trick to again extend the Georgetown lead to two goals late in the third period. Goalie Chad Hughes and his Minor Peewee teammates held on for the important 5-4 victory.

Thanks go to Dan Curtis who got out of sick bed to lead the all important victory over Brampton on Sunday. The Domtar Packaging Chiefs wish to extend a heartfelt congratulations to coach Wally Petrie and his new bride Sandy who were married on Saturday.

Keeping in contact

It may have been a non-contact tournament but that didn't stop a Station Hotel defender (right) from keeping an Acton Tanner forward out of his goaltender's crease during consolation final action at the second annual Over-19 Non-contact hockey tournament at Acton Arena last weekend. The Station pulled off a last-minute 4-3 win in the consolation final while Grant Transport edged Gormley Well Drilling 3-2 in the A final. (Herald photo)

Flamboro novice hot shot proves nemesis again

By DAVE BEAVAN
Herald Special

Georgetown Major Novice AA continued their Tri-County playoffs on Mar. 19 when they hosted Flamboro. Twice this season Flamboro has come to Georgetown and in each game their captain has scored a hat trick to lead his team to victory. Now that the playoffs have started he is obviously trying a little harder and his five goals led his team to a convincing 8-4 win.

The fact that four of his goals were unassisted, end-to-end rushes

Villa earns tie

Acton Villa solidified its hold on third place in the 10-team Milton Indoor Soccer League as George Gidman scored both goals in a well-earned 2-2 tie with first-place Duchess of Oakville on Mar. 19.

Peter Wright set up Gidman's first goal with an excellent pass and Doug Morris sent Gidman a solid pass on his second tally.

Paul Nolan, Dave Entwistle and Dave Hamer were all cited for their strong contributions for Villa. "It was probably our best effort of the season so far," said Gidman.

Villa faces the Optimists in its final regular season contest on Sunday at E.C. Drury gym.

Bridge winners

Results from bridge play at the Georgetown Legion on Mar. 13 and Mar. 20 saw Harry Arbic, Mike Larusso and Elsie Whitham take top spots.

Arbic and Larusso teamed up for first place on Mar. 13 while Whitham earned top honors during Mar. 20 competition.

George Farrow took second on Mar. 13 with "The Floater" in third, Harry Arbic finished in second place on Mar. 20 with Jack Kaarsemaker placing third.

There will be no bridge play on Easter Monday, Mar. 27.

shows what a dominant force he was in this game and it's sure our boys wish he had gone skiing for the weekend.

Georgetown has had trouble putting the puck in the net since the playoffs started, so four goals represented a step in the right direction.

Brad Kouyoumjian continued his fine play as he broke away from two defenders and deked the Flamboro goalie for the prettiest goal of the game. Assists went to Wesley Blight and Shane Thompson. Then in the last minute of the first period Andrew Beavan threaded the needle with a pass and sent Thompson into the clear. Shane moved into the slot and snapped a hard shot over the netminder's left shoulder.

In the last five minutes Curtis Hoogendam gave his visiting grandparents something to cheer about with two goals in 43 seconds. Assists went to Blight and Cameron Hunter.

This has been a frustrating season for the team and the wins have been few and far between, however rookie Fraser Brown's father Graham has no complaints. In the Milton tournament he won the 50-50 draw and on Mar. 19 he and his wife Joan shared the winning ticket in the annual fundraiser draw. Second prize went to our most faithful supporter, Don Honey.
