

Super series line up for 1989-90 announced

Sunday, April 2 is the date for the final concert of the University Women's Club's 1988-89 Super Sunday Series.

At the same time, advance tickets for the 1989-90 Series will be placed on sale.

Each year, a small energetic committee of University Women's Club of Georgetown members works to bring quality family entertainment to Georgetown at the lowest possible price.

This year they are promoting advance ticket sales at the final performance to help reduce promotional costs. These savings allow advance tickets to be sold at a reduced price. Committee members are very enthusiastic about the coming season.

On Oct. 29, the Ontario Ballet will present "Beauty and The Beast." This is the same full-length fantasy ballet for which the company has received high acclaim. It is the classic fairy tale of an ill-fated merchant and his three daughters. The merchant, upon losing his ships, is forced to return to port empty handed. Remembering that his youngest daughter, Beauty, asked only for a rose as a gift, he picks one from the most beautiful garden - the garden of the Beast...

On Dec. 3, an outstanding children's musical is offered. A production by CHP artists, "Getting Ready For Christmas" is an original Christmas tale based on the Juno-nominated album of the same name.

Feb. 25, 1990 will see the final show of the series featuring Charlotte Diamond. This 1986 Juno Award winner and double Juno nominee in 1988, frequently appears on TV with Fred Penner. She has had her own highly rated CBC special "10 Carrot Diamond." In her home province of British Columbia, her records have been top sellers for some time. Liam Lacey of the Globe and Mail describes her this way: "She's got the ingredients for kid charisma: she's upbeat and energetic and appears to be genuinely fascinated with a child's view of the world. She has a beautiful, clear voice that adults as well as children can enjoy.

Advance tickets for this series will be available at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre on Sunday, April 2, between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. Advance series ticket price is $12.50. The September price will be $14. For further information call 877-1575.

Charlotte Diamond plays in February next year.
