Man charged

A Georgetown man, 73, was charged by Halton Regional Police with making an improper turn following a two-car collision in Georgetown Thursday afternoon. Police say the 1981 Pontiac driven by the Georgetown man struck a 1985 Pontiac driven by a Georgetown man, 18. Neither driver was injured.

Two-car collision

A car driven by an Acton man was severely damaged in a collision Thursday afternoon in Acton. Police say a northbound 1981 Ford travelling through the intersection at Queen Street and Churchill Road in Acton, was struck by a westbound 1983 Pontiac driven by a Georgetown woman, 33. The driver of the Ford, an Acton man, 18, is charged with failing to stop. Police report no injuries in the collision.

Charges laid

A car making a left turn was struck by a 1987 Honda driven by a Mississauga man Monday afternoon. Police say the Honda was eastbound on Guelph Street near Mountainview Road when it was struck by a 1982 Ford driven by a Georgetown woman, 32. The Mississauga man is charged with failing to yield the right of way. Police report no injuries in the collision.

Impaired charge

Halton Regional Police charged an Acton man with impaired driving after his truck landed on a Willow Street resident's front lawn early Sunday morning. Police say an Acton man, 23, was sitting in the truck, allegedly in an impaired state. He will appear in court May 8.

Domestic dispute

A domestic dispute between two Georgetown men resulted in $1,000 damage to a car fender Sunday night. Police say two men left a Guelph Street restaurant arguing when the younger man kicked the right front fender of the elder man's 1981 Datsun. A Georgetown man, 18, has been charged with wilful damage. He will appear in court May 1.

Car entered

Police say someone entered an unlocked 1989 Toyota parked on Metcalfe Court overnight Friday and took $600 worth of goods. Reported missing are a briefcase, 25 cassette tapes, an underwater camera, a rechargeable razor, sunglasses and a garage door opener.

Tapes stolen

An unlocked 1981 Toyota is missing $90 in cassette tapes following a theft from the car Saturday. Police say the car was parked on Union Street in Georgetown.

Window smashed

The rear window of a 1988 Plymouth Reliant was smashed overnight Thursday. Police say the car was parked at Guelph Street and Mountainview Road when it received the damage, estimated at $600.

Youths charged

Two Georgetown youths were arrested April 1 after police found suspects pushing a shopping cart filled with two stolen bubble gum machines around the Loblaws parking lot on Guelph Street.

The cart was discovered shortly after 11:30 p.m. after Halton Regional Police received a report of theft and vandalism from Gordon Alcott Arena. Police say two gum machines were stolen and a large candy bar machine was damaged on the premises.

Damage to the candy machine is estimated at $300.

A Georgetown male, 17, will appear in court May 25 on a charge of theft under $1,000. A second Georgetown male, 15, faces charges of theft under $1,000 and public mischief. He will appear in court May 19.

CRIME STOPPERS

OF HALTON

Halton police are seeking two suspects responsible for home entries in the 8th Line/Upper Middle Road area of North East Oakville.

During the morning and early afternoon of Friday, November 25, 1988, the occupants of a home on Galena Crescent, Oakville received two phone calls, both with no one on the line when answered. At 2:30 p.m. the residents left their home, returning at 9 p.m. to find their home had been entered and ransacked.

Investigation showed that two suspects had entered the home by forcing a side door and while one kept a lookout at the front window, the second suspect ransacked the master bedroom removing cash and jewellery.

A neighbor reported to police that at about 6 p.m. she had seen two males walking from the side of the victim's home and leave in a westerly direction on Galena Crescent.

The suspects are described as follows:

1. Male, white, early 20s, 5'8" - 5'10", medium build, dark collar length hair, wearing red wind-
