

Ballinafad dance a big hit

By BETTY SOJKA

 The Ballinafad Ladies Baseball '50s, '60s Dance was a gigantic success. To attend the dance on Saturday, April 1 was to take a step back into time. There were poodle skirts, jeans, T-shirts, bobby socks and slick hair styles abounding. The dance was a sell-out. Nostalgic music was supplied by Mike Reed and Company, who arrived themselves in '50s, '60s garb. It was wonderful dancing to music almost forgotten. A special dedication was made for Helen and Dave Humphries who are celebrating a 23rd wedding anniversary. Bruno Cornelos' great skills as a bartender were very obvious by the way he handled the large crowd single-handedly. There was just no room to lay out all at once the sumptuous food brought for the potluck menu. Special thanks to the Olde Hide House for making one person very happy to win the $100 gift certificate.

The Ballinafad Women's Institute is joining forces with the Limehouse and Silverwood Institutes and are going to the Milton Manor on Thursday, April 13 for a birthday celebration. Everyone born in April will receive a birthday card and gift. The ladies will be taking homemade morsels for the elderly to enjoy. An entertainment program of old-time music is planned. The ladies will get some of the elderly up dancing to the wonderful violin music and just have a nice visit with others. The new Women's Institute executive recently voted in at the April 5 potluck luncheon meeting consists of Mrs. Helga Schwartz as president, Mrs. Reggie Slesoraitis as vice president, Mrs. Aida Kirkwood as secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Grace McEnery is the public relations officer.

As the financial and other reports were being read for the previous year, it was really gratifying to note just how many worthwhile activities there were each month.

Investigation continues

Halton Regional Police are continuing a lengthy investigation into land division committee dealings in the Region following the arrest last week of a Nassagaweya man.

Police say there will be no more charges launched against the man, who faces one charge of uttering a false document, but say other charges could be pending in the investigation. "There's a great deal of things to go through," said Staff Sgt. David Garlick.

The investigation into severance applications was prompted by a private citizen.
