

Making contact

J.M. Ogden is all eyes as he returns the ball during the Park Panthers boys volleyball final at Park School last Thursday. The boys won the championship with a 2-0 sweep of Robert Little School to give the Park both boys and girls titles on the day. Steve Egerton gives J.M. some moral support in the background. Rugby club scrums down

Scrums, rucks and mauls will be on the minds of the members of the North Halton Rugby Football Club as they begin preparations for the 1989 Niagara Rugby Union season.

Norths are slated to open their season with an exhibition encounter in Brampton against the Beavers on Saturday, Apr. 15 beginning at 12-noon and the club is welcoming any current or first-time players to join in the action.

Any interested players should contact club coach Sandy Mackenzie at 877-2207 or 877-5495, First Team captain Terry Pottruff at 877-1244 or Mark Armstrong at 853-0609.

Mackenzie said the club has received permission to play and train at Neilson's Field this season and outdoor training sessions will commence as soon as weather conditions improve. North Halton will again run two sides in the NRU "B" and "C" divisions in 1989 and league play is scheduled to begin on Saturday, May 27.

Last season NHRFC I finished a solid third in the NRU "B" division, with only first-place Castlemore and second-place Burlington Centaurs II placing ahead of the local squad.

Team captain Terry Pottruff is back for another season leading the North Halton club and he is coming off a very successful year of collegiate rugby with the U of T Blues. The lock forward was named to the OUAA Rugby All-Star team following the 1988 season.

Doin' the bump

Pin win eludes Parent

Georgetown's Andy Parent was close but not close enough.

For the second year, Parent was again knocking on the door at the Provincial Finals of the Master-Bantam Championships for a Master's Ring. A mere 14 pins made the difference. Maybe next year the doors to success will swing wide open.

Nevertheless, his bantam bowlers were still trophy winners. Melissa McGugan received one for bowling the most over her average in a single game while Geoffrey Beuparlant walked away with the award for the highest three-game flat total. Parent ably assisted his team with games of 213, 279 and 261 for a 753 total.
