Zone, Raisins unbeaten in hoop playoffs

As expected during playoff time, week three of the Georgetown Ladies Basketball League post-season round-robin provided results that were both surprising and not so surprising.

To no one's surprise, the Blue Zone remains atop the league's playoff standings with an unblemished 3-0 record after defeating the Celtics by 10 points, 62-52, on Apr. 5. A big surprise, however, is the fact the Zone is sharing first place with an equally unbeaten California Raisin squad that won its third straight playoff game on Apr. 5 with a 50-38 besting of the 76ers.

Pacemakers, who actually drew ahead of the Blue Zone by a half game to win first place honors at the conclusion of the regular season, trashed the Steroids 73-35 to stay in second at 2-1. The Celtics and Sixers are still looking for their first playoff wins while the 'Roids stand at 1-2.

Linda Osso (18 points) and Judy Thompson (17) led a balanced Blue Zone attack on Apr. 5 while the Celts got 21 points from Michelle Miehman.

Susan Thorn (16) and Tracy Yorke (12) led an equally balanced Raisin offence with Jana Kuyvenhoven dropping 14 for the Sixers.

Pacemakers got a whopping 31-point performance from hot-shooting Anita Stankus and Lisa Bell led the 'Roids with 13.

Cycle site

ETOBICOKE-The Ontario Cycling Association (OCA) will receive provincial funding to conduct a marketing/fundraising study for a proposed Velodrome in Centennial Park.

The $12,500 Wintario Development grant was announced recently by ETOBICOKE West MPP Linda LeBourdais on behalf of Ontario Minister of Tourism and Recreation Hugh P. O'Neil.

The OCA will design a strategy to secure financing for the project, which is expected to cost more than $1.2 million.

The Toronto Ontario Olympic Council, which is bidding to host the 1996 Olympic Games, has designated the velodrome as the Olympic cycling site.

"The grant," Mr. O'Neil said, "will help the provincial cycling association reach their fundraising goals."

Leisure Lines

Teens in Action

Did you miss out on a fun evening? Well 25 of Acton's most staunch sixth, seventh and eighth graders turned up at the Acton YMCA building last Tuesday evening to eat ice cream, spaghetti, hot dogs, jello pudding, watermelon, etc. or so they thought! Little did they know what was in store for them! Have you ever been fed jello pudding, lying on your back, by someone standing over you and trying to aim spoonfuls at your mouth from a height of four feet? You can imagine the scene, although they say banana flavour does wonders for the skin and hair!

This particular stunt was created by Greg and David, the two youth leaders. So if you missed out on this evening of outrageous fun (ask anyone who came) why not join us for the next 10 weeks of activities of sports and gameboard nights, air band contest, trips, etc. and all for the one low registration price of $10 (trips are extra) or if you prefer to drop in on us it is $2 a week.

We will be there at the Acton YMCA building, 7-9 p.m., Tuesdays - don't forget, it is for grades six, seven and eight only. Registration can be made next Tuesday at the YMCA 7-9 p.m.; at the Acton Pool, Monday to Thursday 6-9 p.m.; at the Acton YMCA, Monday to Thursday 1-5 p.m., Fridays 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. or at the Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department, 25 James St., Georgetown.
