1865 IN ACTON

In October the express train ran off the track near the station on a Saturday morning due to a broken rail. There were no injuries. Rev. L. Cameron, the Presbyterian minister, was burglarized in October, but the thief was in Milton Gaol by November. The year 1865 ended with great excitement as coal oil drilling companies were being formed in the area.

Many thanks to Mark Rowe, President of the Historical Society, who wrote this article.
