Fitting final as Blue Zone, Pacemakers battle for GLBL crown

The Georgetown Ladies Basketball League will have a most fitting final this season as the Blue Zone and Pacemakers will square off for the championship crown on May 3 at Centennial Middle School.

The two clubs battled neck-and-neck for first place during the 1989 regular season schedule with the Pacemakers just inching ahead for top spot by a half game in the final match of the campaign.

In the subsequent playoff round robin series, the Zone re-established themselves by finishing first with a sparkling 5-0 record while the Pacemakers settled for second at 4-1.

Meanwhile, the California Raisins missed a championship berth by only one point and will battle it out with the Celtics in the consolation final, also to be played May 3. The Steroids and 76ers finished out of the running and will be forced to watch from the sidelines.

In the final playoff round robin games on Apr. 19, the Blue Zone faced a pumped-up Steroid team trying to earn a last-ditch playoff final berth. The 'Roids gave the Zone everything it could handle but lost the contest and a possible berth in the consolation final by the slightest of margins in a 50-48 Blue Zone win.

The Pacemakers, meanwhile, flexed their muscles in anticipation of their upcoming Blue Zone battle by devouring the California Raisins 92-52. Celtics topped the 76ers 81-68 in the other contest.

Sandra Cousens (14) and Sandy Brownridge (10) led the Blue Zone attack while Lorraine Capreol was good for 23 Steroid points with Lisa Allen chipping in nine.

Anita Stankus had a 30-point outing for the Pacemakers and teammate Jenny Smith had 24 while the Raisins had 22 from Susan Thorn and 10 from June Nicholson.

Hot-shooting Michelle Miehlm produced 41 points for the Celtics in their win while Boo Tufford hit for 22. Sixers got 20 points from Jana Kuyvenhoven, 18 from Chung Kim and a dozen from Steph Peplinski.

The May 3 consolation game goes at 7 p.m. while the championship will tip off at 8:30 p.m.

The battle's on

The battle for supremacy in the Georgetown Ladies Basketball League, much like the fight for the ball between GLBL combatants seen in the photo above, takes place May 3 with the 1989 playoff finals. The Blue Zone and the Pacemakers will go head-to-head for the league's championship crown while the California Raisins and the Celtics will tangle in the consolation final. Games start at 7 p.m. (Herald photo)

Special needs

In recent weeks there has been a lot of publicity regarding the demise of the Physically Handicapped Citizens Affiliation. While we empathize with the loss of this valuable organization, we want you all to know that the Recreation Committee for Special Needs - North Halton is still alive and doing fine. At our meeting on Apr. 12, many of our members had heard that we had folded: NOT TRUE. In fact, we are getting bigger and better and have expanded our Drop-In Program to run twice a month and we will be hiring a part-time coordinator shortly.

Our Special Needs Drop-In Program operates the second and fourth Wednesday of every month from 12 to 4 p.m. at the Acton Legion and we have a full slate of fun and games, bingo, cards, crafts, leatherwork, special events and outings for disabled adults. Our upcoming program dates include Apr. 28, May 10, 24, June 7, 21 and June 10 Fishing Derby at Burns Conservation Area.

Mark these dates on your calendar and be sure to attend. You will have a lot of fun and anyone is welcome to drop by. For more information call Shirley Raszewski at 875-1531 or Jeff Bitton at 877-5185 extension 262. See you there.
