

Dart finals countdown

Darts

By ALEX TOUGH

At the Halton division of the playoffs on Sunday Mike Pepper of O'Tooles reached the last eight, Gary Rodda, McGibbon I and Eric Fuller, Time Out I reached the last sixteen of the singles and that was that. Ed Patterson, O'Tooles and Terry Hancock, Hollywood both shot 180 and that was also that. Now it is down to the team games on May 14 for glory.

Wednesday night's Industrial league playoffs completed the second week of three matches all round and the results continue to show different winners in both first and second division.

In the first division Exports lead the way with 15 points, and by my reckoning only require four points from their last six to pull off the victory. Panthers are in second spot with 10, Bulldogs and Westenders follow with nine each. The Snowjacks Hustlers have eight. High Rollers and Golden Flights seven each, Ensigns six and Inter County one to finish the standings. It certainly looks like Exports for the playoffs.

The second division has a few more likely candidates for top place. In the lead is Gasketmen Cutters with 14, closely followed by Power of Pain with 13, as is Acadian Pools, Taxmen and Steep Rock and Aces have nine each. Bandits have six, Firemen have five, and Independents have eight.

The finish in both divisions will be exciting, or should be.

Some highlights - Roy Rudiger opened with 120 and followed with a ton and another ton to open. Luke Heikamp scored 138 and Paul Kavanagh 127 for Panthers. Don Eady closed 74. George O'Neil makes it with two 140s. Hunter Carroll opened with 72, Derek Hedley with 76 and Terry Hancock with 82. Carroll also scored 140 and Stan Mathews popped in a ton. Eric Fuller opened two with 100 and 90 with support from Dennis Thorogood's 140. Joe Cairns closed on 88 and scored a ton.

Hugh Smid opened with 140, Gary Rodda with 95 and Jim Nicholson literally fell into a bull finish. Brad Youmans began with 120 and 101 in a couple of games. Gord Bottoms came in with 121 as a top score and Rick Harden with 100. Mark See opened 82.

RRSP FOR SPOUSE

QUESTION: I understand that I may contribute to a retirement plan for my spouse and claim a deduction on my 1988 tax return. Can you give me some details?

ANSWER: You may contribute to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP) in your spouse's name and claim the amount contributed as a deduction on your 1988 return providing the contribution is made within the first 60 days of 1989. Your allowable contribution to RRSPs is based upon your income and is limited to a lesser of $7,500 and 20% of your earned income if you do not belong to a pension plan with your employer or the lesser of $3,500 and 20% of your earned income less any amount you contributed to a plan with your employer.
