

Balloons surprise a birthday child

DEAR POLLY — When freshening the bathtub, add a small amount of shampoo to the cleaning cloth or sponge. It leaves the entire room with a sweet, fresh aroma. I do this every morning along with my other daily

chores. — VIRGINIA

DEAR POLLY — You recently provided a recipe for homemade peanut brittle. My family enjoys this treat, but I'm not fond of standing over the stove using a candy thermometer. I have enclosed an excellent recipe to make peanut brittle in the microwave. It hasn't failed me yet. This recipe comes from "The Microwave Guide and Cookbook" from the General Electric Co.

In a 1½ quart casserole, stir together 1 cup sugar and ½ cup white corn syrup. Microwave on high four minutes. Stir in 1 cup roasted, salted peanuts. Microwave on high for three to five minutes until light brown.

Add 1 teaspoon butter and 1 teaspoon vanilla extract to syrup mixture, blending well. Microwave on high for one to two minutes more. Peanuts will be lightly browned and the syrup very hot. Add 1 teaspoon baking soda and gently stir until light and foamy.

Pour mixture onto a lightly greased cookie sheet or unbuttered non-stick coated cookie sheet. Let cool for half an hour to one hour. When cool, break into small pieces and store in airtight container. Makes about 1 pound. Note: If raw peanuts are used, add to the sugar and syrup mixture before microwaving along with ¼ teaspoon salt. — MARY
