GMHA hands out hardware

Pizza pie and trophies were popular items as the GMHA honored its 1988-89 award winners at its annual year-end banquet. One-hundred and sixty-five players, coaches, managers and executive members gathered to hand out the hardware to some most deserving individuals and teams.

Rick Hume and John Knight topped the list as winners of the rep coach and rep manager of the year awards, respectively. Hume won the Pearce Family Trophy for his coaching prowess and Knight took home the Hume Family Trophy for his managerial work. The Paul Fendley Memorial Trophy for the Most Valuable midget player (as selected by his teammates) went to Sunny Acres Farms forward Bill McDonald, who had a terrific finish particularly in the squad's stretch run to the tri-county league championship. Chad Hughes and John Waller won the Hockey Moms' Trophy for having the lowest goals-against average in the GMHA's junior division and Georgetown's Johnson and Associates Bantam B's earned the Yeo-Christie Memorial Trophy as the most improved team.

Individual award winners according to their respective divisions were: Robert Larose (MVP), Joey Barber (Most Improved Player) and Ryan Smith (Most Sportsmanlike Player), minor novice; Shane Thompson (MVP), Scott Herbert (MIP), and Ryan Bell (MSP), novice; Peter Mashinter (MVP), Andy Kerslake (MIP) and Darren Finlayson (MSP), minor atom; David Kotsos (MVP), Andrew Trant (MIP), and David Kalbarski (MSP), atom; Doug Sheppard (MVP), Jim Katsilieris (MIP) and Duane Eler (MSP), minor peewee; Derek Parsons and Randy Bond (MVP's), Mark David (MIP) and Jeremy Hamp (MSP), peewee; Matt Deruchie (MVP), Ken Brown (MIP) and Mike Travers (MSP), peewee "B"; Shawn Pearson (MVP), Jeff Pettigrew (MIP) and Thomas Spencer and David Osborne (MSP's), minor bantam; Trevor Elinesky (MVP), Ken Kosziwka (MIP) and Duane Lewis (MSP), bantam; Brad Tutt (MVP), Allan Fudge (MIP) and Adam Moneypenny (MSP), bantam "B"; Paul St. Pierre (MVP), Darren Lang (MIP) and Rob Boyle (MSP), midget.

The banquet, with Esso medallions of achievement sponsored by Bill Van Iderstein and pizza supplied by Yellow Submarine (cooked at Terra Cotta Cookies), concluded a fine season by the GMHA which featured the M and M Pro Sports "AA" Bantams winning the right to represent the region in the OMHA Playdowns.

Other highlights included a tri-county crown won by the Sunny Acres Farms midgets, and appearances in the tri-county finals by both the major bantam B's and minor peewee AA's.

Exports on target

Darts

by ALEX TOUGH

The final competitive darts night of the season is over, unless the Monday Halton league comes in with a special section in one way or another.

Exports pulled off the first division playoffs from a five point margin from Snowjacks Hustlers and Bulldogs. Hustlers take second spot having beaten Bulldogs in the run in, and only just. Golden Flights, Panthers, High Rollers, Ensigns and Inter County following to finish the first division. Middle of the table Power of Pain surprised everyone, including themselves, in winning through to take the second division playoffs from Gasketmen Cutters by one point. Like Hustlers, in the first, Steep Rock fought back from a disastrous beginning week to third place, Acadian Pools, Aces, Taxmen, Independents, Firemen, Bandits and Unknowns following.

Exports won 3-0 over Westenders, 2-1 over High Rollers and had to wait for the final set, although a miracle was needed for anyone else to win. Enders were in with a shout until this loss and a subsequent loss 1-2 to Hustlers dropped them out of the running. Enders had begun with a 3-0 win over Golden Flights. The Snowjacks Hustlers 3-0 win over Inter County, and 2-1 wins over Westenders and Golden Flights brought the second place, and having won the league championship have had a less successful season than some others. Exports certainly deserved the victory and Westenders and Bulldogs came very close. Dogs in the first division year can consider themselves to be worthy of their place.

Power of Pain could not have fancied their chances after dropping the first set to Gasketmen Cutters, last week's leaders coming in to the night's play. However 2-1 wins over Independents and Firemen left the Pain with a possibility. The opportunity came when Unknowns spoiled their way to a 2-1 win and left Cutters needing a win in the final set with Steep Rock. Steep Rock also were in with a shout and took all three games over Cutters who were disappointing to say the least, in the final analysis. An exciting finish to the second division, with Steep Rock winning the league championship.

Both divisions, therefore had a share of the spoils, and that must be good for the competition.

Jim Noeholson scored 125 and Brad Youmans 121 in opposition. Cam Levers shot 140, (so did I), and a ton, (so did I). Joe Poirier finished 80. Jim Franks scored 121 and Tom Elliott 100. Bruce Capriol opened 82 and Jim Watson shot 95. Bruce Hope and Rick Harden both managed tons. Luke Heikamp opened 91 and scored 140 as did Jay Bishop. Brad Hale shot 132 and Ron Scarlett and Beau Beaumont 100 each. Laurie Hopkins came in with 125 and John Mills with 100. These are the individual scores recorded this week. Next is the awards night on Friday, May 5 and the Halton awards day is May 23 (includes finals of the playoffs).

'Friendly' darts continues throughout the next few months on Mondays at the Time Out and Wednesdays at the Legion until the new season preparations begin.

Project Playground exceeds $6000 mark

The campaign trail for playground equipment in the Glen Williams Park is coming to an end. After 15 months of various fundraisers, we have exceeded $6,000.

There are so many people to thank for their generous support, donations and time. We are so fortunate to have such a beautiful park here in the Glen - two baseball diamonds, hiking trail, family picnic area and the Credit River. The playground equipment will complete the setting.

On June 2-4 we will be making good use of the two baseball diamonds. Project Playground has recruited volunteers from Glen Williams Minor Ball, Glen Old-Timers, Glen Town Hall Board and community and the Recreation and Parks Department to help host a two-day double knockout fun Slo-Pitch Tournament at Glen Williams Park. This tournament is purely for fun and all proceeds from the weekend will go towards the purchase of play equipment. The new playground equipment will be set up, so kids, come out and put it to good use.

The entry fee is $125 per team and we are looking at 16 teams. At least four ladies will be on the field at all times, minimum 12 players, maximum 15 players and three-pitch lob-ball.

Whether you come out and play ball or cheer the teams on, you and your families will be guaranteed a good time and also contributing to a very worthwhile cause.

Teams interested in signing up for the tournament can obtain registration forms from the Recreation and Parks Department, 25 James St., Georgetown or contact Gail Bibby-LaBranche at 877-0835 for further details.

Head games

GDHS Rebels had it tough at their own senior girls soccer tourney Saturday. The local team lost a pair of 1-0 preliminary round decisions as Lord Elgin eventually defeated Assumption for the championship. (Herald photo)
