Annual meeting

By KAY WILSON
Norval Correspondent

NORVAL-The annual meeting of the Norval Community Association 1989 was held at Norval School at 8 p.m., May 4.

Chairman, the Rev. Walter Ridley welcomed everyone. Joan Carter was acting secretary. Business included discussions on the new bridge and sidewalk over the Credit River. Rental of the Norval Room was left to the executive. A presentation was made on the zoning of the Norval Hamlet, and a proposal for a large day care centre on residential property, was also made. A discussion took place as to the problems and needs of a day care centre. A motion was carried to ask the Town of Halton Hills to put a freeze on the rezoning, until there is an official plan for the Norval Hamlet.

Executive members of N.C.A. were asked to attend council May 23 to support Willow Park residents for a new Traifer Park, as they are being evicted in November, 1989.

The secretary of N.C.A. (Norval Community Association) was asked to write Halton Hills council to install two street lights at the extreme east end of Georgetown, where the highway narrows from four to three lanes.

There was a motion to ask the community and area people to support the Association for a fee of $5 a family. New members are welcomed to our meetings. Joan Carter at the Norval Post Office, or any executive member, can take your membership and give a receipt.

Villagers are encouraged to phone your local police station regarding the speed of truck traffic through the village.

Following the business, volunteers for the 1989 executive are: Kathy Gastle, George Gastle, Fraser O'Quinn, Phyllis Moffatt, Brenda Bryce, Ellen Carter, David Carter, Liz Dodd, Mary Bond, Bob Pipfer, Joan Carter, Bev Porter and Bob Porter. There was a motion by Lois Fendley that this be the 1989 executive. Secretary Geoff Noble carried the motion.

A social hour followed the annual meeting and then presentation to our retiring chairman, the Rev. Walter Ridley.

Joan Carter spoke of Rev. Walter's service to the community of Norval the past 23 years and his work on the Norval Community Association as member and chairman. She then presented Rev. Walter with a framed watercolor print of the Old Whirlpool Bridge on behalf of Norval Community Association. A bouquet of flowers were then presented to Margaret and thanked her for her allowing so much of Rev. Walter's time given to the community. We will miss them and we wish them well in their new home and congregation.

Rev. Walter then thanked the Association for the gifts, on behalf of Margaret and himself. He said he still has ties to this area with his daughter and family in Georgetown and we will see them again.

Norval UC

NORVAL-Home United Church was filled to overflowing on Sunday, May 7 as past members and friends were welcomed from neighboring churches, to celebrate their 127th anniversary.

Rev. Norman Greene of North Bramalea United Church used as his theme "Rebirth Day." Special music was supplied by the local men's choir, capably led by organist Laura Forbes. A social hour followed when ladies of the church provided a delicious lunch.

Home Church is preparing for their annual beef barbecue June 10. Meals will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Take-outs will be available. For tickets call 455-8682.

80th birthday

NORVAL-Wilmer Mason, a life long resident of Streetsville area and member of Eden United Church, celebrated his 80th birthday on Saturday, May 6, at the Senior Citizens Complex in Streetsville. Assisting him in receiving around 175 friends and relatives were his wife Mildred, and his daughter Ruth and her husband Ted Walter of Brampton, and daughter Wilma and her husband Lorne Ella of Hornby.

Grandchildren Stephen, Christopher, Karen Walter, and Marvin Ella assisted in serving lunch, which was catered to by the Eden United Church Ladies. Pouring tea were Wilmer's sister Muriel Lowden, and cousins, Muriel Wamsley, Marjorie Sparling, Lillian Clarkson, and Doris Sharpe.

Many senior bowlers and euchre players from Norval,

Georgetown, Milton, Brampton, and the Streetsville area, were there to extend their Happy Birthday greetings to a super gent.

Chicken barbecue

NORVAL-Don't forget Norval United Church Chicken Barbeque May 27, at the Huttonville School from 4 to 8 p.m. featuring Maple Lodge chicken, homemade salads and pies. Tickets available from church members, 455-8519.

Norval WI

NORVAL-Norval WI met at the home of Eleanor Hyatt May 4 at 8 p.m.

President Norine Van Leuven opened the meeting with a reading about spring flowers and children. After the opening exercises Aileen Nixon gave her secretarial report and president Norine gave a financial report, thanking all members for their support and donations for a very successful garage sale April 22 held at Norval Texaco.

Halton District Annual will be held Saturday, May 27 in Boston Presbyterian Church. The theme is "Around the World" with A.C.W.W. Each WI branch will make a display of a country in another world area. Norval is doing Norway. One of two workshops being offered is available to each member attending. Four ladies from the Norval branch will attend District Annual meeting.

A program planning meeting for Norval WI 1989-90 year is being held at the home of program co-ordinator Jean May, May 18 at 7 p.m.

The roll call for this "Family and Consumer Affairs" meeting was "What I find most frustrating about shopping," and was answered by 14 members.

Grace Crawford gave two very topical readings. A bountiful market basket filled with spring flowers and baked goodies was sold by Marie Murray who was assisted by secretary Aileen Nixon in the absence of our treasurer Rita Deenik.
