TEMPERANCE

The forces against "that demon drink" won a victory with the Temperance Act of 1864. A township could vote for or against the sale of liquor, except for medicinal or sacramental purposes. However, a merchant could sell liquor in quantities of 5 gallons or more. The Acton Hotel keepers protested by shutting up their hotels to drinkers and travellers, leaving the place without accommodation facilities.

Many thanks to Mark Rowé, President of the Historical Society, who wrote this article.
