THE CROPS AROUND ACTON

The editor of the Canadian Champion wrote in 1866, "...we observed more good wheat along this line than in any part of the country...This probably arises from the sheltered situation of many of the fields by the pines of Esquesing, which word in the aboriginal Indian signifies the "fall pines."

The hop is beginning to be extensively cultivated in Esquesing; on the farm of Joseph McNaughton (Lot 13, Con 2) we observed several large patches thickly studded with hop poles.

Many thanks to Mark Rowe, President of the Historical Society, who wrote this article.
