

Peaches get "Half-Croc'd" in Powderpuff barnburner

A full slate of games highlighted last week's Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff League schedule. Some exciting and well-played contests took place between some competitive, determined teams.

Dirty Shirts 10 Blue Light 8

A real tense game with the outcome in doubt right until the last inning. The "Shirts" were led by the solid hitting of Sharon Hale, who lashed out two doubles. Sharon and Heather Hansen combined for four RBIs to lead the "Boomer and Moose" team to a decisive win over previously undefeated Blue Light.

Blue Light allowed six unearned runs in this contest, which spelled defeat. The Light crew were spearheaded by the continued excellent hitting of Jeannie Brookes. Jeannie tore the cover off another ball to record another homerun. Janet Poirier, Monica Donaldson and Cindy Crawford each pitched in a double to spark a late rally by the Blue Liters.

Half-Croc'd 23 Life's a Peach 22

A Half-Croc'd team squeezed this game out with a great comeback.

A 10-run deficit couldn't keep the "Crocker" from winning.

Bonnie Penny stroked out two doubles to lead a balanced attack for Half-Croc'd. Bev Barrett, Julie Ferraro and Jane Peterson each added two-baggers to the well-balanced "Croc" attack.

The Half-Croc'd team made a great comeback from being in the hole early. Everything was "Rosie" in the last inning.

Great hitting by Patti Sunnucks, Debbie Titus, Laurie Henson and Lori Sargent couldn't overcome a seventh inning strikeout by Rose Wilcox as Life's a Peach's hardships continue. Linda Braisby and Sue Hilts made nice plays defensively but couldn't compensate for the Wilcox strikeout.

Shady Ladies 18

Pink Cadillacs 10

While good coaching remains a problem, the Shady Ladies continue to roll along in impressive fashion. The Ladies put forth a good effort and came out on top of the gritty 'Caddy Gals.' Carol Dean, Jackie Diegel and Robin Malby were perfect at the plate, with Robin smashing a homer for son Brett.

Virginia Walker and Melanie Hewson scored five runs and combined for six RBIs to even out a balanced attack.

Pink Cadillacs continue to have tough luck. Greg and 'Bot' have yet to come up with a winning combo for these talented ladies.

Holly Peterson and Helen Slingsby led the "Caddies" offensively with Betty Fendley and Brenda Hamilton tossing in with good pitching. A great game played by all.

Travelling Blueberries 17

Roger's Dodgers 12

A good close game with the Berries coming out on top.

Heather Cartwright and Kim Kirk led the Travellers against a determined Dodger crew.

Pauline Cawood and Jan Walker clouted out triples and Leanne Hall, Judy Cater and Penny Butterworth each contributed key RBIs in a losing cause.

Raisin' Hell 11

Red Sox 12

A nailbiter right to the end with neither team giving an inch.

Raisin' Hell received strong performances from Carol Spiteri who struck out eight Sox batters and was three-for-three at the plate. 'Bernie' Bishop poked out a triple and played good defense. A strong team effort by both clubs provided for a real dramatic finish.

A reminder to all coaches that it is imperative that the league get your game sheets after each game. These sheets are important for the write-up of this column and for statistical purposes as well.

Kicking up dust

A Kitchener baserunner kicks up some dust as he's tagged out at second base during the visitors' 5-0 shutout of the hometown Georgetown midget Eagles in tourney play at the Fairgrounds Saturday. Kitchener went on to defeat Hamilton West Mountain 2-0 in the "A" final while Bolton dropped a 16-13 decision to London in the "B" final of the annual Shaw's Trophies Tournament. Georgetown opened the competition on Friday night with an 8-1 drubbing of Bolton. (Herald photo)

Junior Eagles stranded

Stranded baserunners were the nemesis of the Georgetown Eagles as the local squad left 11 on base in a 9-3 loss to Peterborough in junior baseball tournament play in Belleville last weekend.

Georgetown opened the tourney on a winning note, slamming Newmarket 11-1 behind the two-hit pitching of Tim Chapman. The ensuing loss to Peterborough, defending Ontario "B" champions, eliminated the junior Eagles from further play.

Brent Falcone manned the mound for the locals against Peterborough who went on to lose a one-run game to North York in the tournament final.

The junior Eagles host Brampton tomorrow before visiting Erindale Friday and Oakville Saturday.
