Late goal draws Guns

Tuesday's first game in the Senior Ball Hockey League saw the Petro Canada team score a goal with 40 seconds left to go and force a tie with the Midas Top Guns.

Petro Canada had leads of 2-0 and 3-1 before the Midas team scored three goals to take a 4-3 lead, but Jim Gillam scored for Petro Can to tie the game. Scoring for Petro Canada was Neil McDonald (one goal, three assists), Marty Weaven (one goal, two assists), Don Eady (one goal), Jim Gillham (one goal) and assists to Angelo Spodafara and Ted Rom-brough. Midas goals were by Gary Beck (2), Doug Baxter (1), and Bob Tuckett (one goal, one assist). Mark Maxwell, Warren Vereg, Ray Peacock, Roger Watson and Tony Kovacevic all drew assists.

The second game was a tight checking affair but the Pontiac Trackers managed to hold on to a lead from the start and finally break the game open in the third period. Grant Bodnar with two goals and Brent Ladds with a goal and an assist led the Trackers scoring parade. Rob McMulkin and Greg Bodnar drew assists. Choice Air's long goal was by Steve Christopher from Barry Ward.

The 9 p.m. game saw the Kentners take a 2-1 lead after one period and then score three unanswered goals in the third to win convincingly 5-1. Ken Whitbread (one goal, two assists), Don Parker and Ono Disanto (both one goal, one assist), Geoff Parker, Al Hay (one goal each) and Ron Huibers (one assist) rounded out the Kentners scoring while Bill Fournier from Ian Syme and Brian Hunziger replied for the McGibbon Hawks.
