

Public schoolers make tracks

Local elementary school athletes ran and jumped with a great degree of success at the annual North Halton track and field championships at Burlington's Nelson Stadium May 31.

In the bantam girls division, Kelly Douglas of W.I. Dick led the locals with a first, a second and a third. Douglas was tops in the long jump, second in the 800-metres and third in the 100-metre sprint.

Krista Smallwood of Stewarttown took top honors in the high jump, McKenzie-Smith's Jenny Goy won the 800-metre run and Karen Walker of Stewarttown earned gold in the 100-metre sprint.

Corey Scott (W.I. Dick) and Rob Hans (W.I. Dick) were the top local bantam boys with Scott winning the 800-metres and Hans claiming gold in the high jump.

Janine Wessman led local girls in the junior category, taking first in both the 400 and 1500 while earning second in the 100.

Alicia Griffon, also of W.I. Dick, took first place in the long jump, second in the 200 and third in the 100.

Junior boys competition had Russ Fleming and Matt McIntosh, both of W.I. Dick, and Chris Rice of Centennial all winning golds.

Fleming won the 800 and 1500, McIntosh was tops in the 60-metre hurdles and triple jump, and Rice won the shot put and long jump.

Toli Toris of Centennial and Chris Browning of W.I. Dick earned single golds, with Toris winning the high jump and Browning claiming the 400 title.

Kim Wiltshire (Stewarttown) and Donna Brown (Centennial) led the intermediate girls category as Wiltshire was golden in both the high jump and triple jump while Brown was tops in the 100 and 200.

Stewarttown's Seema Singh won the 400, Vanessa Doig, also of Stewarttown, took the 60-metre hurdles, another Stewarttown athlete, Lisa Carlo, captured first in the long jump and McKenzie-Smith's Michelle Davis won the shot put.

Alex Petroff, Paul Brown and Sean Faulkner, all of W.I. Dick, were multi gold winners in intermediate boys events.

Petroff won the 400 and 800; Brown claimed top spot in both the triple jump and shot put; and Faulkner captured gold in 80-metre hurdles and the 100.

Erik George, W.I. Dick, won the 200 and came third in the 400; Graham Henderson, W.I. Dick, won the 1500; Jay Johnson, Centennial, claimed the long jump; and Centennial's Derek Parsons won the high jump.

Becki Couling, Amy Newell and Darby Erler were multi medal winners in senior girls events with Couling (W.I. Dick) taking both the 200 and 400 titles; Newell (W.I. Dick) claimed triple jump gold and 80-metre hurdles top spot status; and Erler (Centennial) won the 100 with seconds in both the triple jump and long jump.

Melissa McCaug, W.I. Dick, won the 80-metre hurdles; Lynda Zavitz, W.I. Dick, won the high jump; and D.D. Eggleton, W.I. Dick, won shot put.

Matt Zuraw and Kevin Shaw were the top local senior boys, winning a pair of gold medals apiece.

Zuraw, of Stewarttown, was tops in both the long jump and high jump; Shaw won the 1500 and 800, as the Centennial student had a strong outing.

Matt Deruchie of Centennial also had a good showing, winning the shot put and claiming third in the 400 while Brett Colling of W.I. Dick was first in the 80-metre hurdles and second in the 200.

Bryan Adams of W.I. Dick won top spot in the 400.
