Pioneer Days has events for everyone

For three days this week Halton Hills residents will be able to step into the past for the annual Pioneer Days celebration downtown Georgetown.

The celebration kicks off Thursday with a sidewalk sale starting at 9:30 a.m. Other events throughout the day include a seniors awareness display, a bake sale and a patio garden at the McGibbon Hotel. For mechanically minded people a 1920 Goodison steam engine will be on display and for the kids, Dr. Bandoli's "Ghostbuster Ambulance" look-alike and the Travelling Goodtime show will be on hand at 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

The Mad Dr. Bee rubber animal petting zoo opens at 3:30 p.m. The opening ceremonies kick off at 7 p.m. with a special performance by the Pine Valley Squares followed by dancing in the street to the tunes of Barbara Dowdell and Friends on the patio.

Also on display Thursday are model steam engines and a rope-making demonstration on a machine by Jack Layman.

Jack Armstrong will have his 1932 Chevrolet on display and Penniesworth will hand out its Youngest Pioneer Award to the first baby born during Pioneer Days sometime during the weekend.

Many of those events are repeated on Friday at the same time with additions such as the Crown and Anchor by the Royal Canadian Legion and the Three and a Bit musical group at 5:30 p.m.

The Halton Junior

Farmer's petting zoo opens at 6 p.m. and Sudden Impact will help you dance till midnight.

Saturday kicks off with the Lions Club Pioneer Breakfast at 8:30 a.m. followed by another performance by Three and a Bit at 9 a.m.

The Junior Farmer's petting zoo opens again at 9:30 and Dr. Bandoli will put on another show at 10 a.m.

The Georgetown Lioness Club hosts its Lifestyles '89 Auction at 11 a.m. and registration for the Halton Hills Recreation Department's Parade of Decorated Bicycles at Memorial Park opens at noon. The parade will get under way at 12:30 p.m.

Dr. Bandoli takes to the stage once again at 1:30 and the St. Andrew's Church will host a bake sale at 2 p.m.
